FACULTY, STAFF, STUDENT AUDITIONS FOR THE WAYSIDE MOTOR INN - APRIL 17

With five months to memorize lines and to learn to speak clearly, there can be no impediment to trying out for the opening show of the 1986-87 USC Coastal Carolina College theatre season, "The Wayside Motor Inn" by the popular American playwright, A.R. Gurney. In the meager tradition of last year's "Ten Little Indians," the cast of six men and four women will be composed of faculty, staff, and students. Auditions are Thursday, April 17, 5 to 7 p.m. on the Wheelwright stage. A script is on reserve in Kimbel Library.

SOCCER CAMPS SCHEDULED

The 1986 Coastal Carolina Soccer Camps will be open to children of faculty and staff for half the regular fee. The program is open to boys and girls ages 5 to 17. Two on-campus camps are held -- the week of July 28 and the week of August 5. Spaces are limited, and pre-registration is recommended. The regular cost is $55 for half-day sessions and $75 for full-day sessions. For additional information, contact camp director Paul Banta, ext. 2803.

CAMPUS CHAPEL SERVICE

April 6 - James P. Blanton
Coastal Educational Foundation

This Week is published by U.S.C. Coastal Carolina College, an equal opportunity employer subscribing to all Civil Rights legislation.

FACULTY, STAFF, STUDENT NEWS

o JACQUELINE L. GMUCA, assistant professor of English, recently attended the Conference on College Composition and Communication held in New Orleans March 13-15. During the conference, she served as a respondent for the session on Current Issues in English as a Second Language, as assistant director for the Coastal Area Writing Project, and attended the biannual meeting of national writing project directors. This spring, she also attended the South Carolina Teachers of English conference in Columbia and the Southeastern Association on Women's Studies meeting in Greensboro, NC.

o DR. BALLOU SKINNER, professor of physics, will present a seminar entitled "Determination of Uranium in Trace Amounts via Fission Track Measurements" Thursday, April 10, 2:15 p.m. in room 120 of the Science Building.

o DR. ELINOR MILLER, v.c. of academic affairs, will present a paper entitled "Contemporary Satire in Senegal: Aminata Sow Fall's La Grève des Bâttu" during the 14th French Literature Conference, April 3-4 at USC Columbia.

o DR. SUSAN LIBES, assistant professor of marine science and chemistry, attended a long-range planning meeting of the South Carolina Sea Grant Consortium March 27 in Charleston. On April 19-20, Dr. Libes will attend the 11th annual Trenton Computer Festival in New Jersey. She is the associate editor of Micro/Systems Journal, a technical magazine for microcomputer users.

o ED CERNEY, assistant professor of business administration, chaired a special session on visiting professors to national advertising agencies at the American Academy of Advertisers annual convention. The convention was held at LSU in Baton Rouge, March 22-24. Additionally, Ed presented a paper on the use of personal computers in advertising classes. He has been invited again to chair the program on visiting professors for the 1987 conference to be held in New York City.

o LARRY CARR, assistant professor of physical education, was the instructor for a hitting clinic sponsored by Surfside Beach Recreation Department March 23. Ninety-two players and eighteen coaches attended the event.

CHICKEN BARBEQUE

The Soccer club is sponsoring a chicken barbeque on the Campus Station Terrace Friday, April 25 from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Entertainment will be provided by TASOS. Tickets are $2 and are available in the soccer office or from team members. Proceeds will help pay for the team's 1986 uniforms.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR "HAPPY HOUR"

Volunteers are needed for the P.E. Center's "Happy Hour for the Handicapped" swimming program. The sessions are held Wednesdays and Thursdays from 10 to 11 a.m. For details, contact the P.E. Center, ext. 2800.
