RESIDENCE HALL PLAN RECEIVES GO-AHEAD FROM BUDGET AND CONTROL BOARD

The plan to build residence halls on campus was approved unanimously by the State Budget and Control Board last Wednesday.

Chancellor Eaglin said, "We've passed the final hurdle, and we are ready to move ahead with the project. On-campus housing at Coastal will be a reality."

The complex will be built at no cost to taxpayers. Construction will be financed by $5 million in revenue bonds which will be repaid to the state with funds generated from student housing fees. Six three-floor, apartment-style residence halls will house approximately 425 students and will be supervised by a resident manager and six resident assistants. Ground will be broken in late summer and the tentative completion date is August 1987.

Chancellor Eaglin said the decision was a "tremendous vote of confidence in Coastal. It shows that the state recognizes us as an institution that is on the move and an institution that can control its own destiny." He added that on-campus housing will enable the college to better serve the students by providing an atmosphere conducive to college life. "It will establish a nucleus for campus-oriented programs that will give students an opportunity to make the most of their college experience."

FACULTY, STAFF, STUDENT NEWS

o DR. ROBERT SQUATRIGLIA, associate chancellor for student development, has been appointed district governor of Rotary International. As district governor, he will preside over 52 clubs totalling 3,800 members located in communities from the Columbia-Orangeburg area to Hilton Head-Charleston. Dr. Squatriglia is was the first two-term secretary in the District's history. He also served as president of Conway Rotary in 1982-83 and as district governor representative in 1983-84.

Dr. Squatriglia recently graduated from the Leadership South Carolina Program administered by the Byrnes International Center at USC. It was created by Gov. Riley in 1979 to identify outstanding young leaders in the state, provide them with an opportunity to advance their leadership qualities, and increase their understanding of issues facing the state.

o TAMRA TURNER, a rising junior

This Week is published by U.S.C. Coastal Carolina College, an equal opportunity employer subscribing to all Civil Rights legislation.

marketing major, will appear on the Today Show Friday, June 6 as part of the Sun Fun Festival promotion. Tamra is the reigning Miss Wahine Bikini.

o DR. DOUGLAS NELSON, professor of geology and marine science, delivered an invited presentation to the Kansas Geological Society in Wichita, Kansas, May 9. The topic for these geologists from the interior of the county was nearshore sedimentation processes (the beach). Examples from Myrtle Beach and other beaches around the world were used to show how factors affecting the beach can be preserved and recognized in ancient deposits.

o PAUL BANTA, instructor of physical education, will serve as volunteer camp director for the Waccamaw Sports Camp June 16-20 at Camp Baskerville, Pawleys Island. The program is for young people, grades 4 through 12.

Paul recently spoke at the annual sports banquet for Winyah Academy, Georgetown. His topic was "Team Work." He will be hosting two free soccer clinics at Winyah May 31 and June 7 for the Georgetown community. The purpose is to introduce Coastal's soccer program. He will be assisted by our players and the Winyah Academy team.

EXERCISE CAUTION AS WORK BEGINS ON EXTERIORS OF CAMPUS BUILDINGS

For the next three weeks, we will be painting the exterior cornice work, windows, doors, etc. of the E.M. Singleton and Fine Arts Buildings. As a first step, the contractor will wash and clean the exterior wood work of both buildings. The pressurized washing solution is water mixed with bleach (Clorox). Please be aware of this and take necessary precautions to protect yourself, your clothes, and your car. Remember to look to see where the contractor is working before leaving either building to avoid being doused with the cleaning solution.

ADMISSIONS OFFICE CLOSED

The Admissions Office will be closed Tuesday, June 10 for an all-day staff meeting. There will be personnel available to handle inquiries and incoming telephone calls.
