MARKLAND JOINS COACHING STAFF

Regina Markland has been named head coach for women's basketball and women's volleyball.

A native of Asheville, NC, Markland received her B.S. in physical education at Appalachian State University in 1979 and earned her master's in the same field at UNC Greensboro this year.

She comes to Coastal with more than five years of college and high school coaching experience. Most recently, she served as a graduate assistant coach at Western Carolina University in Cullowhee, NC. Before coaching at Western Carolina, she spent four years at her high school alma mater, T.C. Roberson High School, as the assistant coach for the women's varsity basketball and volleyball programs and head coach for the same junior varsity sports.
