All members of the Coastal Carolina Community are invited to participate in the intramurals program which will begin in October. ## JOG-A-THON TO BE HELD ON CAMPUS

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes in Horry County is holding a Jog-A-Thon Saturday, October 11 from 10 a.m. to noon on campus. High schoolers, college students, and adults are welcome to run. There will be a five mile course set up around Quail Creek, or participants may run around the practice soccer field.

The purpose of the event is to raise funds for the State Ministry in South Carolina and to send Horry County high school students to the national conference in Black Mountain, NC next summer.

If you would like to participate or contribute, contact Ed Cerny, ext. 2651.

(The college chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes meets every Tuesday, 8 p.m., in P.E. Center room 114.)

SWIMMING CLUB FOR FACULTY/STAFF TO BEGIN

Several individuals have indicated a desire to have a set times during which the pool is reserved for faculty and staff swimming. There are two time blocks available: Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7:30 to 8:30 a.m. and Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m.

Arrangements will be made to accommodate faculty and staff at the time most desired, provided that at least 12 people indicate they will attend. Those who are interested should contact Karen Connolly (ext. 2815) or Diane Watson (ext.2800).

recently attended the annual Southern Arts Exchange held in Atlanta, Georgia. This three-day event is where performing arts groups from throughout the country make connections with hundreds of representatives from communities and organizations in the Southeast in order to bring quality performing arts experiences to Southern audiences. The exchange enables presenters to preview and select the best artists for their audiences.

This year's theme was "Southern Arts" reflecting a dual interest in the wealth of indigenous artistic expression in the South's culture and history, balanced with the presentation of classical and contemporary arts.
