ROBINSON RECEIVES AWARD

International Programs' "Call Me When You Need Me" Award for 1986 will be presented to Dr. Robert N. Robinson of the Philosophy Department. Robinson has been a great spiritual resource for all engaged in creating a more cosmopolitan atmosphere at Coastal.

COASTAL CAROLINA PEOPLE

o Thomas E. Jones, director of Wheelwright, recently served as an adjudicator for the American College Theatre Festival. He attended a performance of the contemporary comedy "The Foreigner" at Western Carolina University in Cullowhee, North Carolina which was the school's entry in the fesitval. The purpose of this national educational theatre program is to identify and promote quality in college-level theatre.

o Dr. Anne Graves, assistant professor of special education, presented a paper entitled "Metacomprehension Strategies for Teaching Reading Comprehension" at the New Jersey Learning Consultants conference in Lakewood, New Jersey on December 5.

o Mary Bull, associate librarian, recently spoke to the South Strand Sertoma Club concerning the goals, activities, and education projects of the Waccamaw Audubon Society. Mary is a member of the board of directors of this local chapter of the National Audubon Society.
