STUDENTS SELECTED FOR DISNEY INTERNSHIPS

Four Coastal business students have been selected by the College Relations Department at Walt Disney World to participate in their college internship program in Orlando during the spring term. The students are: Connie Metts of Conway; Genell Owens of Myrtle Beach; and Dominique Lutrand and Sylvie Boileau, two exchange students from France.

The students will be working the entire spring semester at Disney World. In addition to their work experience, they will participate in the following seminars: employee relations, guest experience, merchandising, marketing, finance, entertainment, food administration, resorts, and career planning. In order to receive six hours business credit at Coastal, the students will complete an extensive paper on their experience.

This Week is published by U.S.C. Coastal Carolina College, an equal opportunity employer subscribing to all Civil Rights legislation.

Eight new members have been inducted into the Chi Rho chapter of Sigma Tau Delta, the national English honor society. The new inductees are Lisa Desjardins, Deborah Gants, Susan Herndon, Cindy Horton, Imogene Lambert, Margaret Mishoe, William J. Rivers III, and Deni Scott.

COASTAL CAROLINA PEOPLE

o Dr. Marshall Parker, assistant dean of education, recently spoke at the southern regional meeting of the National Intramural Recreational and Sports Association on the topic "From Sports to Wellness in Intramurals."

o Zdzislaw Sikora, associate professor of art has contracted to present a one-man exhibition of his work with International Images, Ltd. of Sewickley, Pennsylvania (near Pittsburgh). This exhibition will include prints and large drawings. The tentative date for the show is April 1987. Sikora has also been notified that his print "Flora 5," which is now hanging in the Guild of South Carolina Artists annual exhibition, has been acquired for the permanent collection of Columbia College. This is the first of his "Flora Suite" series to be added to an institutional collection.

o Dr. Sally M. Horner, vice chancellor for administrative services and fiscal affairs, attended the annual meeting of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. Horner served as the institutional representative for Coastal at meeting which was held in Atlanta December 7-10.

o Ed Cerny, assistant professor of business administration, was the guest speaker at the Coastal Advertising Federation's December meeting. His topic was Coastal's internship program.

PETITIONS COMMITTEE MEETING SET

The next meeting of the Petitions and Scholastic Standing Committee is scheduled for Tuesday, January 6, 10 a.m., in Kimbel Library room 222. Students having petitions to present to the committee may file them with Linda Carmichael in the Registrar's Office or with Dr. Fred Hicks in Kimbel Library room 220.
