SHORT COURSES TO BEGIN IN MARCH

Each semester, the Office of Continuing Education offers a series of non-credit, "Short Courses" to the community. Most of these classes begin in March and meet evenings or Saturdays. There are no entrance requirements.

This semester, the schedule includes classes in computer use, personal success, public speaking, personal finance, golf, and the Shag.

Information about the program is available in the Office of Continuing Education at the college.

TWO ART EXHIBITS ON CAMPUS

The latest in the Art Department's series of exhibitions on campus is "Mexico's 20th Century Art," a one-man show by Carross Emilio Ramess which opened February 15 in the Student Center Art Gallery and will hang until March 8. Ramess is a native of Mexico and has spent the last several years traveling and making art in the U.S. He currently lives in Conway. The exhibit is open from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily.

"Assembled Notions," an exhibit of paintings and sculpture by two South Carolina artists, Mark Elliot Flowers and Kristy Higby, is on display through February 20 from 2 to 5 p.m. daily in the Fine Arts Building Gallery.

LOCAL COASTAL FEDERAL BRANCH OFFERS PAYROLL DEPOSIT INCENTIVES

The Coastal Federal branch located at Waccamaw Medical Park Complex next to the Conway Hospital, is interested in becoming a payroll depositor for USC payroll checks. In order to accomplish this, at least 10 people must designate Coastal Federal as their payroll deposit financial institution.

To encourage people to sign up, Coastal Federal is offering free checking services (no statement charges or minimum balance requirement) to anyone signing up for payroll deposits with them. This offer is extended to anyone opening up a new checking account as well as existing checking account holders. This offer expires May 1, 1987, and is limited to interest bearing (compounded daily) regular checking accounts only. (Does not include commercial or money market checking accounts.) For more information, call Esther Seesan at 347-4624.

FEDERAL CREDIT UNION PAYROLL DEPOSITORS WANTED

Anyone interested in signing up for payroll deposit with MBAFB Federal Credit Union, please contact Pat West, personnel department, ext. 2035. A minimum of ten individuals are required.

FROM MEDIA SERVICES

Effective immediately, all "Request for Media Services" forms must have the proper approval signature. Requests without signatures will not be processed.
