APPLICATIONS BEING ACCEPTED FOR LEADERSHIP CHALLENGE II

The Student Development Division, Office of Minority Student Relations is accepting applications for team leader participation in LEADERSHIP CHALLENGE II for the 1987-88 academic year. Leadership Challenge is designed to develop minority campus leaders by enhancing their personal skills and their knowledge of the overall college experience while defining their role in society.

Applicants must be Juniors or Seniors with a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale. Administrators, faculty, and staff are urged to submit nominations. Application deadline is April 10, 1987. For more information, contact Jane Talbert at ext. 2302 or Sha-Ron Jones at ext. 2304 or 2037.

FACULTY, STAFF, AND STUDENT AUDITIONS SET

The opening show of the 1987-88 Coastal Carolina College Theatre Season is Cat On a Hot Tin Roof, Tennessee William's funny and anguished treatment of a southern family prematurely gathered to divide Big Daddy's estate. This cast call is for five men and three women. Auditions are April 13 from 4 - 6 p.m. and 7 - 9 p.m., and April 14 from 7 - 10 p.m. in the Fine Arts Little Theatre. A script is on reserve in Kimbel Library for timid folks who like to know what they're getting into. For more information, contact David Millard at ext. 2442.

FEDERAL AND STATE INCOME TAX FORMS AVAILABLE AT KIMBEL LIBRARY

Kimbel Library has a wide variety of federal and SC state income tax forms and instructions available for faculty, staff, student, and community use. Forms for distribution are on a display rack near the library's entrance. Federal and state forms that may be photocopied for use in filing returns are available on reserve at the circulation counter. The library also has a copy of the book 1987 TAX GUIDE FOR COLLEGE TEACHERS on reserve at the circulation counter.

MEDIA COLLECTION HOURS ADVISORY

Due to staffing considerations, the Media Collection, second floor of Kimbel Library, will not be opened beyond the posted hours for any individual. Spring semester hours are 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, and 2 - 6 p.m. on Sundays. Please inform your students of this policy.

COASTAL REPRESENTATIVES FAIR WELL AT THEATRE FESTIVAL

David Majewski and several Coastal students recently attended the American College Theatre Festival - Region IV Festival held in Knoxville, Tennessee. While there, two of the students, Robin W. Edwards, Jr. and David F. Russell competed in the Irene Ryan National Acting Auditions. They were two of the 72 finalists to reach this stage of the competition held throughout the southeast. They were partnered in their acting scenes with Timothy M. Harvey and Cathy Callaham, respectively. William J. Rivers, III; a Coastal English major, won the Regional Competition of the National Critics' Institute. He is one of twelve regional winners now in competition for a scholarship to study at the Eugene O'Neill Writing Center.

CREDIT UNION RAFFLE WINNER ANNOUNCED

Congratulations, Sharon Howell! Sharon's name was drawn in the raffle sponsored by the USC System Credit Union. She won a $25 cash prize---to be deposited into an account with the Credit Union.

COASTAL CAROLINA PEOPLE

o Dr. Marshall E. Parker, assistant dean of education, made a presentation to the State Task Force on Citizens with Seniority on March 19. Approximately 100 people were present for the presentation on "Agercise."

o Pat Bennett, school of nursing, was elected 1987 Woman of the Year at the March meeting of Waccamaw Chapter of the American Business Women's Association. Candidates for this award are first judged by independent judges and the finalists are elected by chapter members. Judging is done by a point system in the categories of Business Experience and Accomplishments, Education/Continuing Education, General Information/Community Service, and ABWA participation. The Woman of the Year's resume is submitted to national headquarters for judging by an independent panel of judges for the Top Ten American Business Women of the Year. Women of the Year are honored and recognized at the Annual National Convention of the American Business Women's Association in October. Two other finalists from Coastal Carolina College were Audrey Garland, continuing education coordinator, and Brenda Sawyer, assistant registrar.

o David E. Majewski, chairman of the Department of Theatre and Speech, has been elected to the Board of Governors of the South Carolina Theatre Association. As a member of the board he is responsible for shaping the future of theatre in the state of South Carolina on all levels (along with the remainder of the board and the other officers).

o Robert Elvington, conference director, was selected to participate in the "Learn from Success" program at Florida State University on March 16-17. This program offers an excellent opportunity to share ideas and information. Elvington was one of only ten selected nationally.

o Karen Carpenter, assistant professor of nursing, and Bernice Cavanagh, instructor, passed the CCRN examination for professional certification as Critical Care Nursing Specialists. The American Association of Critical Care Nurses offers CCRN certification as evidence of professional nursing excellence in the critical care setting.

o An article by Richard Collin, associate professor of political science, was recently published in Violence, Aggression and Terrorism, an international academic journal published in Danbury, Connecticut; and Jerusalem, Israel. The article was entitled "Breaking the Police: Mussolini's Use of Terrorism."

o Ed Cerny, assistant professor of business administration, spoke to the Columbia Sales and Marketing Executives' Club. The title of the talk was "Looking Backward Into the Future."

o Dr. Randall Wells, associate professor of English, Dr. Jill Sessoms, assistant professor of English, Linda Hollandsworth, English lecturer, and Peter Lecouras, English lecturer attended the Conference on College Composition and Communication on March 19-21 at the Westin Peachtree Plaza in Atlanta, Georgia.

"THE ROYAL FAMILY" TO BE PRESENTED AT COASTAL

The North Carolina School for the Arts will present the George S. Kaufman - Edna Ferber comedy, "The Royal Family," Wednesday, April 8 at 8 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium.

Described by one reviewer as "a love letter to the theatre," "The Royal Family" tells the story of a great family of the American stage. The fictional Cavendish family, which comprises three generations, is led by the indomitable Fanny Cavendish, an aging but courageous matriarch. Although the writers denied that their play was based on the real-life Barrymores family, the public and the Barrymores disputed their contention.

"The Royal Family" features Myrtle Beach native Birgit Darby in the role of the ingenue Gwen. Miss Darby, the daughter of William E.

Darby and Birgit H. Darby, is a member of the Senior Repertory Company of the North Carolina School of the Arts.

"The Royal Family" is sponsored by the Wheelwright Council for the Performing Arts at Coastal Carolina College. Tickets are $7 for general admission, $5 for students, and are available through the Wheelwright Box Office.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION TO HOLD PHONATHON

The Alumni Association will conduct its 2nd Phonathon for this school year on March 30, 31, and April 2. The association's board of directors along with other volunteer alumni will be calling Coastal graduates in the area to ask for their support to the annual Alumni Loyalty Fund. They will be making calls between 7 - 9 p.m. each evening.

According to Debbie Schmitt, director of Alumni Affairs, "It's a great way to reach a large number of people in a short period of time. The alumni are glad to talk with fellow graduates. It is also a good way to update addresses. Often we'll reach the graduates' parents and they'll forward our message to the alumni."

The Association conducted a Phonathon last December and reached 160 graduates in two hours of calling.

AFRO-AM STUDENTS TO PRESENT FASHION SHOW

The Afro-Am student organization will hold its annual Spring fashion show Sunday, April 12 at 6 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium. "Spring Delight" will feature a variety of formal and casual attire, the latest swimwear fashions, and women's hair designs. Admission is $3 for the public and $2 for students. Tickets may be purchased at the door.
