Rebels and Redcoats Tour Set For June 5

The next Rebels and Redcoats History Tour sponsored by the college will be held Friday, June 5 from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

The all-day tour will be conducted by Rod Gragg, author of Pirates, Planters and Patriots: Historical Tales of the South Carolina Grand Strand, and will visit historical sites in the Waccamaw-Grand Strand Region.

Tours are held once a month through November. For upcoming dates or reservations, phone the Office of Continuing Education at 448-1481, 347-3161, or 546-0234.

Higher Ed Grad Course Offered in Summer I

The first graduate course in Higher Education will be available on campus during the Summer I session. Registration is June 8 and 9.

The course is Higher Education in America (EDHE-745) and will be taught by Dr. Ray Murphy. Classes meet Thursday from 5 to 9 p.m. and Friday from 8 a.m. to noon.

For more information, contact the graduate office.

Summer Aquatics Program At P.E. Center

The Physical Education Center is offering swimming classes throughout the summer beginning June 8. There are classes for all ages including Tiny Tots (4-24 months), Pre-School (2-4 years), Beginners (5 years & up), Advanced Beginners (5 years & up), and Intermediate Swimmers (5 years & up). In addition to regular swimming classes, diving, junior swim team, water exercise, and scuba will be taught.

Participants may choose to enroll in classes scheduled to meet five days per week with new classes beginning every two weeks or monthly classes meeting twice per week. All classes are open to the public. The cost is $15 for members and $25 for non-members.

For more information or to enroll in one or more of the swimming classes, contact the P.E. Center at 347-3162 or 448-1482.

Young People's College To Be Held

The Office of Continuing Education and the Horry County School District are sponsoring a Young People's College during July and August, 1987. This is an enrichment program for four and five year olds and rising 5th through 12th graders. Classes will be held in swimming and diving, tennis, chemistry, creative writing, computer science, and more.

The program is designed for average to above average students who are motivated to explore interesting and challenging courses during the summer. Enrollment is limited and will be taken on a first-come, first-served basis. For more information, contact the Office of Continuing Education, ext. 2672.

Moody Named NSACA All-American

Coastal Carolina College basketball player Greg Moody has been named to the 1986-87 National Strength and Conditioning Association All-American team.

The 6-foot 2-inch senior guard from Roselle, New Jersey follows Chanticleer baseball pitcher Jack Jolly as the second consecutive recipient of the All-American honor from Coastal Carolina. Jolly won the award last year as a junior.

The All-Americans are named on the basis of their dedication to improving their strength and physical abilities. Moody and Jolly were both recommended and nominated by Coastal's Strength Coach Ed Cerny.

Students Participate In Renaissance Faire

Joyce B. Parker's Children's Literature class participated in the Myrtle Beach Renaissance Faire, May 23 at Chapin Park. Class members went as characters from Charles Perrault's Contes de ma Mere l'Oye, Robin Hood, Aesop's Fables, and other period pieces in children's literature.

Keep In Touch

The public relations office is interested in any special projects or research faculty members may conduct this summer. Please keep us apprised of your activities by mail or by calling Cathy McPherson, ext. 2015.

Coastal Carolina People
