Continuing Education Offers College After 25 Program

College After 25, a program designed to address concerns that adults encounter as they consider continuing their education, will be held Thursday, July 30 from 6 - 8:15 p.m. in the Student Center. Topics to be discussed include admission procedures; evening and off-campus programs; grants, scholarships, and loans; and career decisions. Any adult who is interested in enrolling in courses at USC Coastal Carolina College is invited to attend. An informal reception for participants and interested faculty will be held immediately after the program. Call the Office of Continuing Education to reserve a seat.
