Rebels and Redcoats Tour Set for August 7

The next Rebels and Redcoats History Tour sponsored by USC Coastal Carolina College will be held Friday, August 7, from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

The all-day tour will be conducted by Rod Gragg, author of Pirates, Planters and Patriots: Historical Tales of the South Carolina Grand Strand, and will visit historical sites in the Waccamaw-Grand Strand Region.

The tour will leave Wheelwright Auditorium at 9:15 a.m. and will return at approximately 5:30 p.m. The $30 fee covers transportation and admission to all sites as well as a continental breakfast of doughnuts and juice.

For reservations, phone the Office of Continuing Education at 448-1481, 347-3161, or 546-0234.

Coastal Carolina People

o Ed Cerny, assistant professor of business administration, was invited to speak at the South Carolina Annual Vocational Education Conference in Columbia on July 29. He addressed Marketing Education teachers. Cerny's topic was "Marketing Yourself," based upon his workbook of the same title.

o Zdzislaw Sikora, associate professor of art, recently accepted an invitation to participate in the 13th Independante Exhibition of Prints in Kanagawa, at the Kanagawa Prefectural Gallery, Yokahama, Japan. The show will run from November 28 through December 13, 1987. This is his fourth appearance in this annual exhibition. The kanagawa show is one of several extremely important surveys of international trends in printmaking. Also, Sikora was informed by International Images, Ltd., of Sewickley, Pennsylvania (Pittsburgh) that his recent colour etchings "Flora 3" and "Flora 8" have been added to the corporate collection of the Westinghouse Corporation.

Correction

Holly Massey, bookstore manager, and Carol Collins, bookstore office, recently completed six days of intensive study with the National Association of College Stores in Oberlin, Ohio.

Massey attended the textbooks course which covers basic procedures and the latest techniques to improve the efficiency of a textbook operation. Collins attended the basic services course which stresses the management fundamentals of a college store.
