

8-10-1987

Coastal Carolina College This Week, August 10, 1987

USC Coastal Carolina College

Coastal Carolina University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.coastal.edu/this-week>

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the History Commons

Recommended Citation

USC Coastal Carolina College and Coastal Carolina University, "Coastal Carolina College This Week, August 10, 1987" (1987). Coastal Carolina College This Week. 318.
<https://digitalcommons.coastal.edu/this-week/318>

This Periodical is brought to you for free and open access by the CCU Newsletters at CCU Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Coastal Carolina College This Week by an authorized administrator of CCU Digital Commons. For more information, please contact commons@coastal.edu.

this week

VOL. 5

NO. 180

AUGUST 10, 1987

USC-COASTAL CAROLINA COLLEGE
Office of Public Relations PO Box 1954 Conway, SC 29526

"Children at Risk" Receives NUCEA Award

The Continuing Education Division's "Children at Risk" Conference, held last November, has been selected as a Program of Excellence by the National University Continuing Education Association, Region III. The conference was developed by Audrey Garland and Mary Leiter. The award will be presented October 14 in Savannah, Georgia. Congratulations for a job well-done!

French Students Complete Summer Studies at Coastal

The twenty-one French students from Grenoble, France who studied English at Coastal this summer will be honored during a graduation ceremony Tuesday, August 11 at 7 p.m. in the Fine Arts Building Little Theatre. Dr. James H. Rex will be the speaker.

USC College of Journalism to Offer Graduate Courses at Coastal

The University of South Carolina College of Journalism is hosting a drop-in at Coastal Carolina College on Tuesday, August 11 from 5:30 to 7 p.m. in the Singleton Building Conference Room to acquaint area residents with the plan to offer a new graduate program in journalism at Coastal. Those interested in the program as well as students, friends, and alumni are welcome.

The first course, which will be offered this fall, is Contemporary Issues in the Mass Media. It will be taught by Dr. Ronald Farrar on Tuesdays from 6 to 8:45 p.m. at Coastal Carolina. A former newspaper reporter, columnist, and general manager, Dr. Farrar holds the title of Reynolds-Faunt Professor in the College of Journalism at USC.

For more information about the drop-in or the graduate program, contact the Graduate Office at 448-1481, 347-3161, or 546-0234.

Free Nutritional Lecture to be Held at Coastal

A free nutritional lecture and slide show on how to avoid degenerative disease will be held at Coastal Carolina, Wednesday, August 12 at 6 p.m. in Student Center room 205.

The speaker is Daryl Kollman, scientist, teacher, and president of Cell Tech, who recently appeared on South Carolina ETV's "Journal." For more information, contact Robert Elvington in the Continuing Education Department.

Coastal Wellness Program For Faculty and Staff

Margaret Fain of the library was the winner of the Wellness Award for June. She received a basket of fruit. Congratulations!

Kimbel Library Closing Reminder:

Kimbel Library will be closed from Saturday, August 15 through Sunday, August 23 so that special projects can be completed.

Coastal Carolina People

o Dr. James D. Henderson, associate professor of government and international studies, has completed a summer research report on the Newsfilm Library at USC. The purpose of the project was to provide information on the USC Newsfilm Library and its potential usefulness for Coastal Carolina students and faculty. Assistance for the project was provided by the Faculty Welfare and Development Committee and the School of Social and Behavioral Sciences.

This Week

VO. 2 NO. 180 AUGUST 10 1987

"Children at Risk" Receives NCEA Award

The Community Education Director's Office at York Community College has been selected as a recipient of a grant by the National University Continuing Education Association, Region III. The grant was developed by Arthur Geland and Mary Baker, The grant will be awarded to York to help fund a program for at-risk children.

French Studies Complete Summer Studies at Coastal

The twenty-one French students from York College who studied French at Coastal this summer will be honored during a reception ceremony Tuesday, August 11 at 7:00 in the Fine Arts Building Little Theater. Dr. Robert H. King will be the speaker.

UNC College of Journalism to Offer Graduate Courses at Coastal

The University of North Carolina College of Journalism is offering a grant to York College to offer a graduate program in Journalism at York. The grant will be used to fund a graduate program in Journalism at York. The grant will be used to fund a graduate program in Journalism at York. The grant will be used to fund a graduate program in Journalism at York.

The grant will be used to fund a graduate program in Journalism at York. The grant will be used to fund a graduate program in Journalism at York. The grant will be used to fund a graduate program in Journalism at York. The grant will be used to fund a graduate program in Journalism at York.

The grant will be used to fund a graduate program in Journalism at York. The grant will be used to fund a graduate program in Journalism at York. The grant will be used to fund a graduate program in Journalism at York. The grant will be used to fund a graduate program in Journalism at York.

Free Nutritional Lecture to be Held at Coastal

A free nutritional lecture and video will be held at Coastal Community College on August 12 at 6:00 p.m. in the Student Center Room 102.

The speaker is David Kolman, Ph.D., a nutritionist and president of the York College. He will be speaking on "Nutrition and Health: The Role of Diet in Disease Prevention." The lecture is free and open to all.

Coastal Wellness Program For Faculty and Staff

The Wellness Program at Coastal Community College is designed to help faculty and staff maintain a healthy lifestyle. The program includes a variety of activities and services.

Kindel Library Closing Reminder

The Kindel Library at Coastal Community College will be closed from August 15 through August 22 for the summer. Please plan accordingly.

Coastal Examines People

The Coastal Community College is currently examining the role of the community in the development of the college. The college is currently examining the role of the community in the development of the college. The college is currently examining the role of the community in the development of the college.

The Coastal Community College is currently examining the role of the community in the development of the college. The college is currently examining the role of the community in the development of the college. The college is currently examining the role of the community in the development of the college.