Football Club Not Affiliated With College

Recent publicity about the Coastal Carolina Football Club has led some people in the community to believe that Coastal Carolina College has a club football team. This is not the case. The following letter from Dr. Eaglin addresses this issue:

I would like to state the college's position on the Coastal Carolina Football Club which has been mentioned in the local news media.

First, the organization has no connection, whatsoever, with USC Coastal Carolina College or with any segment of the institution. This includes our Athletic Department, the CINO Booster Club, the Physical Education Center, and Student Activities.

It is not recognized nor in any way endorsed by Coastal Carolina College, and no college funds have been, or will be allocated to the organization. Donations made to the organization do not come to the college, and those who are soliciting funds do not represent the college or have authorization to use the college's name in their solicitation.

*Dr. Ronald Eaglin
Chancellor*

Residence Halls Open House

Faculty and staff are invited to tour the new residence halls Monday, August 31. Groups will meet in Student Center Room 101 and leave on the hour from 9 to 11 a.m.

Parking Policy Changes

There will be no reserved parking for faculty and staff for the 1987-88 academic year. Adequate parking will be available with the addition of faculty/staff spaces behind the academic building, and the enforcement of parking restrictions in the former faculty/staff area near the security building.

To help relieve congestion in all campus lots, students who wish to register and park free may obtain a special sticker that is valid only for the baseball field parking lot. It is anticipated that this policy will encourage students to use the overflow area which will accommodate approximately 350 cars.

Talbert's Book Available On Campus

Kimbel Library has received its copy of Dr. Roy Talbert's new book, FDR's Utopian: Arthur Morgan of the TVA (University Press of Mississippi, 1987). It is featured in a display near the library entrance. The book has been placed on reserve to facilitate checkout. Copies also are available in the Bookstore.

Welcome to Ernie Locklair

Ernest Locklair will join the College Advancement staff as director of development on Monday, August 24.

Locklair comes to Coastal Carolina with more than eight years experience in academic advancement. For the past three years, he has been director of annual giving for Atlantic Christian College in Wilson, North Carolina. Prior to that, he was with the College of Charleston as director of college relations. He earned a B.A. in Journalism from USC in 1971 and an M.A. in Business Management from Central Michigan University in 1981.

His office is in the Chancellor's Suite, room 104B.
