Lewis Grizzard to Speak on Campus

Popular author and columnist Lewis Grizzard will speak on campus Tuesday, October 20 at 8 p.m. in Kimbel Gymnasium. Sponsored by the Kimbel Distinguished Lecture Series, the program is free and open to the public. Seats will filled on a first-come, first-served basis, and doors will open at 7 p.m.

Born in Fort Benning, Georgia in 1946, Grizzard attended the University of Georgia where he studied journalism and worked as sports editor of the Athens Daily News. At the university, he was the recipient of a William Randolph Hearst Writing Award and a Minneapolis Star-Tribune scholarship for his journalistic skills.

Grizzard became the youngest executive sports editor of the Atlanta Journal. For several years he was the sports editor for the Chicago Sun Times before returning to Georgia as a columnist at the Atlanta Constitution. His column is syndicated nationally by King Features to over 300 newspapers with a readership of ten million.

His awards are numerous. He was awarded the Associated Press Newswriting Award; the 1978 United Press International Georgia Sports Commentator Award; Dixie Council of Authors and Journalists Award for Nonfiction Author of the Year; and was Georgia Speaker of the Year --to name a few.

He has written nine books, three of which made The New York Times and Time magazine best-seller lists. His most recent book is When my Love Returns from the Ladies' Room, Will I Be too Old to Care? He is a frequent guest on network television shows including "The Tonight Show with Johnny Carson," "Good Morning America," and "The CBS Morning News."

The lecture is sponsored by the Kimbel Trust, the Episcopal Diocese of South Carolina, The Sun News, the Coastal Educational Foundation, Inc., Coastal Carolina College, and the Burroughs Foundation. Additional support for this lecture is provided by the Sheraton Myrtle Beach Inn.

Dept. of Government to Present Bicentennial Series

"The Fight for the Constitution," the first in the Department of Government's series of three programs celebrating the bicentennial of the U.S. Constitution, will be held Tuesday, October 20 from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium. The speaker is Dr. William B. Allen of the U.S. Civil Rights Commission, one of the most tireless and articulate defenders of liberty and self-government of our time.

Along with being a devoted public servant and a former candidate for the U.S. Senate in California, Allen is a scholar of the first order. He is a professor of government at Harvey-Midd College and Claremont Graduate School, Claremont, California, where he specializes in political philosophy, American government, and jurisprudence. He also has held faculty positions at American University and University de Rouen in France, where he was a Fulbright Fellow.

He serves as program administrator for the Liberty Fund Bicentennial Project, is a member of the National Council on the Humanities, and is a consulting editor of Improving College and University Teaching.

His contributions to professional journals and other publications are numerous. Among his many publications are George Washington: Without Parade or Funeral Oration, The Essential Anti-Federalist, and The Works of Fisher Ames.

His program is free and open to faculty, staff, students, and the public. For further information, contact Jack Riley, ext. 2625.

Search for Chanticleer Editor in Progress

NOTE TO FACULTY: The Student Media Committee has asked that faculty make announcements to their classes about the search for a new editor of The Chanticleer.

A search is in progress for a new Chanticleer editor. The deadline for applying is Friday, October 16, 5:00 p.m. Interviews with the Student Media Committee will be scheduled from 2:30 - 4:30 p.m., on Thursday, October 22. Applications are available in the Office of Student Affairs in the Student Center. Applicants are encouraged to submit writing samples and letters of recommendation with their application.

Family Fund Drive Begins

The Family Fund drive will begin Wednesday, October 14 and continue until the end of this month. During the drive, faculty and staff will be receiving pledge cards and requests for support for the Family Fund.

William Allred, director of student financial aid, is chairman of this year's campaign.

Coastal Film Society presents Rebecca

The Coastal Film Society will present Rebecca, Sunday, October 18, at 2:00 and 7:30 p.m. in the Fine Arts Little Theatre. This 1940 film, directed by Alfred Hitchcock, is based on the book by Daphne du Maurier. It is the story of a naive young girl, Joan Fontaine, married to a Cornish landowner, Laurence Olivier, who is haunted by the image of his glamorous first wife, Rebecca. It is a true "gothic" thriller.

Tickets are $2.00 each and are available at the door.

Charley's Aunt Audition Dates Set

Audition dates have been set for Brandon Thomas' Victorian farce, Charley's Aunt, the third installment of the Coastal Carolina Theatre Series. Auditions will be in Wheelwright Auditorium, room 209, Wednesday, October 14 and Thursday, October 15, from 4 to 9 p.m.

This world-famous farce involves two college-aged men and their deception concerning the aunt of one the boys. In the classic style of the farce, disguises, mistaken identities, tricks and true slapstick comedy follow.

Scheduled to open December 11 and play through December 13, the cast is composed of 6 males and 4 females and is directed by Robin Armitage-Majewski. A limited number of scripts are available for perusal by contacting David E. Majewski, ext 2511.

Coastal Wellness Program For Faculty and Staff
