

11-9-1987

Coastal Carolina College This Week, November 9, 1987

USC Coastal Carolina College

Coastal Carolina University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.coastal.edu/this-week>

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the History Commons

---

Recommended Citation

USC Coastal Carolina College and Coastal Carolina University, "Coastal Carolina College This Week, November 9, 1987" (1987). Coastal Carolina College This Week. 331.
<https://digitalcommons.coastal.edu/this-week/331>

This Periodical is brought to you for free and open access by the CCU Newsletters at CCU Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Coastal Carolina College This Week by an authorized administrator of CCU Digital Commons. For more information, please contact commons@coastal.edu.

Coastal Theatre To Stage "The Diviners"

The Coastal Carolina Theatre's American College Theatre Festival entry, "The Diviners," opens Friday, November 13 in Wheelwright Auditorium. With performances running on November 14 and 15, this play by Jim Leonard, Jr. marks Coastal fifth entry in the ACTF. Friday and Saturday performances are at 8 p.m. and Sunday is a 2:30 p.m. matinee.

"The Diviners" is the story of a young, disturbed boy who is befriended by a disenchanted preacher. In a moving story, built on short vignette-style scenes; this play builds to a climax which has been called "one of the true magic moments in theatre."

For ticket information, call the Wheelwright Box Office, ext. 2502.

Palmetto Mastersingers To Perform

The Palmetto Mastersingers will perform Thursday, November 19 at 8 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium. This is the second of four programs to be presented by the Cultural Arts Series.

The 80-voice, all male chorus was formed in 1981 by the late Dr. Arpad Drasz under the umbrella of the University of South Carolina Music Department.

During the 1981 Spring Concert of Choral organizations at the University of South Carolina, the Mastersingers gave its first performance. Since then, they have performed with the Palmetto State Orchestra, the South Carolina Chamber Orchestra, the USC Symphonic Band, the USC Concert Choir, the South Carolina Philharmonic Chorus, as well as numerous area church and high school choirs.

Early in 1983, the chorus, after competitive audition, was invited to be one of twelve groups from fifty states to perform at the Bi-annual National Convention of the American Choir Directors Association held at the Tennessee Convention Center for the Performing Arts in Nashville. The Mastersingers received critical acclaim at the performance, and established its reputation in South Carolina, the United States and abroad.

In 1984, the chorus achieved international recognition by winning second prizes at two of the worlds most prestigious choral competitions, the Llangollen International Musical Gisteddfod in Northern Wales and the Bela Bartok Choral Competition in Debrecen, Hungary.

Active in state as well as in local events, the chorus performed for various religious, professional, governmental, civic and charitable organizations including the Rotary, Jaycees and the Children's Hospital. During Columbia's Bicentennial Celebration, it participated in the Community Worship Celebration, appeared on WIS-TV's Carolina Today Show, premiered the Bicentennial Hymn, "Columbia", and performed on the steps of the State House during the Bicentennial Pageant of History.

The chorus includes men from many business and professional careers such as medicine, insurance, finance, the clergy, teaching, real estate, publishing, and the military. Students as well as active and retired men are included.

Tickets are $7 general admission, $4 students and are available at the Wheelwright Box Office.

Dr. Nicholas K. Coch To Present Seminars

The Department of Marine Science has invited Dr. Nicholas K. Coch of the City University of New York-Queens College to present two seminars on Thursday, November 12 at 8:30 and 11:30 a.m. in Science 107.

Dr. Coch will speak on "Sedimentary Facies and Dispersal Patterns in Urban Estuaries-A Tale of Two Systems" and "Hudson River Estuary Pollution, Resources and Management." Dr. Coch is an expert in estuary sedimentation and will be developing future collaborative research with members of the Marine Science Department. For further information, contact Paul Gayes, ext. 2213.

Dr. John L. Safko To Present Seminar

The Physical Science Department of the School of Natural and Applied Sciences will be presenting a seminar and public lecture by Dr. John L. Safko, professor of physics and astronomy at USC-Columbia. The seminar on Pseudoscience will be conducted Monday, November 23 at 1:30 p.m., and Tuesday, November 24 at 11:30 a.m., in room 120 of the Science Building. Many forms of pseudoscience, including astrology, will be discussed from a scientist's viewpoint.

Tuesday, November 24 at 8 p.m., Dr. Safko will give a public lecture in the Fine Arts Little Theatre, entitled "Gravity and Black Holes." The talk will not be overly technical. It will be of special interest to those who want to learn something about one of the fundamental forces in nature and about some of the most bizarre objects astronomers believe to populate our universe.

Both seminars and the lecture are free and open to the public. For further information contact Dr. Walter Van Hamme, ext. 2225.

Coastal Wellness Program For Faculty and Staff

Health Quote for the Week:

"Those who do not find time for exercise will have to find time for illness." The Earl of Derby: Address in Liverpool, 1873.

Halloween Hike Results

Twenty-five participants competed in the two-mile Wellness Halloween Hike. The first place winning group was from the School of Education and Health Professions with 50% participation. They received a trophy and luncheon. Best costume winner was the devil, Glenda Sweet, who was awarded a $15.00 gift certificate from the Physical Education Center. Congratulations!

Wellness Committee To Discuss Upcoming Events

The Wellness Committee has scheduled a meeting for November 10 to discuss November's upcoming events. The month's main event is centered around the "Great American Smoke Out." Your area contact person will be providing details next week.

Chancellor's Interns Sponsor Continental Breakfast Forum

The Chancellor's interns are sponsoring a continental breakfast forum with county legislators and student leaders. The breakfast will be held in Student Center 205 on Monday, November 16 from 7:30 to 8:30 a.m.

Club presidents, athletic team captains, SGA officers and Campus Union officers have been invited to attend the forum.

Kimbel Library Receives New Publications

The Kimbel Library has received the following SC state publications which are shelved on the "New State Documents Shelf."

Directory of Alcohol and Drug Problems, 1987.

Procurement Audit and Certification: University of South Carolina, 1987.

Dropout Prevention Task Force Report (S. C. Department of Education), 1987.

A Resource Paper For The Regular And Special Educator Of Learning Disabled Students, 1987.

South Carolina Labor Market Review, 1987.

South Carolina Health Insurance Buyer's Guide, 1987.

Francis Marion College Fact Book, 1986-87.

The Carolina Coast: A Quarterly Report On Marine Resources Division Programs And Activities (New Periodical)

Charlotte Artist to Make Presentation

The Art Department and the Waccamaw Arts and Crafts Guild are delighted to announce the appearance of Polly Dove, mixed media artist from Charlotte, N.C.

Ms. Dove will deliver two presentations in our area. The first, on Thursday, November 12 at 8 p.m. at the Trinity Episcopal Church (30th Avenue N. on Hwy. 17, Myrtle Beach), will be a slide presentation and talk about her work. The second, on Friday, November 13 at 10 a.m. in the Fine Arts Building, will focus on art and technology and will include a viewing of her work.

Since 1970 Ms. Dove has been a member of the Art Faculty of Central Piedmont Community College, Charlotte, N. C. She holds an M.F.A. from George Washington University (Washington, D. C.) as well as a degree in Art History from Mary Baldwin College (Virginia).

In 1984 she was a Fulbright Fellow to the Netherlands. Ms. Dove has received a number of important grants and fellowships including ones from the North Carolina State Arts Council, the Charlotte Arts and Sciences Council and the League for Innovation through the Fulbright-Hayes Commission.

Pauline Dove is best known for her work combining traditional art materials and contemporary technology. She often begins her pieces with xerox or other electronically produced work that she then alters and adapts by adding colour pencil or acrylic paints. She is a recognized pioneer in this field and has been included in every major Southeastern exhibition dealing with this extraordinarily innovative field.

Both of these events are open to the public at no charge. For further information contact Prof. Zdzislaw Sikora, ext. 2703.

Founders Day Nominees Sought

Founders Day is an annual celebration honoring individuals who have contributed to the historic and academic significance or to the physical development of Coastal Carolina College. Our next celebration is set for February 15.

Billy Alford, Chairman of the Horry County Higher Education Commission, and Jimmy Johnson, President of the Coastal Educational Foundation, Inc., are now accepting nominations for special recognition. Coastal faculty and staff are invited to submit names of honorees to the Chancellor's office by the November 15 deadline.

Personal Career Graph Seminar

The Continuing Education Office will present a Personal Career Graph Seminar on Friday, November 20 from 11:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. in SC-205.

The Personal Career Graph is a tool that you can use to help understand your career better while simultaneously planning future goals and how to attain them. The graph has been used to identify the need to change jobs, raise questions concerning one's chosen career, emphasize the effect of employee-supervisor differences and provide personal introspection on job interests.

The free seminar is open to faculty and staff only. A box lunch will be served. For more information contact Robert Elvington, ext. 2673.

Coastal Carolina People

o Marshall Parker, Sara Ann McDearmon and Violet Meade, of the School of Education and Health Professions, were nominated for State offices at the recent State meeting of the South Carolina Association of Health, Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance.

o Ed Cerny, director of the MBA and Internship programs, presented a slide presentation on international advertising to the Academy of International Business in New Orleans, La., on Friday, November 6.

o Jim Henderson, assistant professor of government and political science, has published an article and a book review in the Newsletter of the Conference on Latin American History. The article is titled "An Annotated List of Videotapes and Films Useful in the Teaching of Latin American History." The review concerns Margaret M. Gullette's edited volume, The Art and Craft of Teaching.

o Dr. Gerald V. Boyles, professor of finance, and Dr. Darcy R. Carr, associate professor of economics, presented a paper entitled, "The Finance Curriculum: An Examination of AACSB Schools, at the annual meeting of the Institute of Management Science. The paper will be published in the Institute's 1987 proceedings. —

o Janet Inman of Coastal's music faculty, along with students Pam Muise, Patty Milark and Tina Branton attended the S. C. Music Teachers National Association Convention and National Association of Teachers of Singing Convention at Winthrop College in Rock Hill. Pam Muise was one of the candidates for statewide vocal honors.

o Carolyn Cox, assistant professor and chairman of the music department, recently directed the newly organized Coastal Carolina Girls Choral Ensemble at the South Carolina Recreation and Parks Society Convention at the Landmark Resort Hotel.

o Zdzislaw Sikora, associate professor of art, was recently filmed as part of a video tape highlighting the print collection of the Knoxville (TN) Museum. A three-man video crew spent three days talking about his work and the career of a working artist in general. Funding was through a grant from the NEA. This tape will be part of the educational service of the museum and will be available to schools, colleges and museums as well as PBS through Tennessee PBS-TV.

He also was recently informed that his prints were added to the following public collections: The Westinghouse Electric Corporation (Pittsburgh), The Amoco Corporation (Chicago), Columbia College, (Columbia, S.C.), Museum of Fine Arts, (Houston), and Achenbach Foundation, Museum of Fine Arts (San Francisco).

Classifieds

FOUND: 10 Speed Bike. For more information call the Campus Police Department, ext. 2177 or 2178.

Campus Activities

November 12:

Dr. Nicholas K. Coch, Marine Science lecture, 8:30 and 11:30 a.m., SC-107.

November 13:

"The Diviners", 8 p.m., WA.

Women's Volleyball, Big South Tournament, away.

Rebels and Redcoats Tour, 9 a.m., WA.

Polly Dove, Art and Technology lecture, 10 a.m., FA.

November 14:

"The Diviners", 8 p.m., WA.

Women's Volleyball, Big South Tournament, away.

Men's/Women's Cross Country, NCAA Regional Meet (South), Greenville, SC.

USC Football, USC vs Wake Forest, 1 p.m., away.

November 15:

Sunday Chapel, 10:30 a.m., SC-205.

"The Diviners", 2:30 p.m., WA.

Address Correction Requested
Postage Guaranteed

Conway, South Carolina 29526

PO Box 1954
COASTAL CAROLINA COLLEGE