"Wheelwright Passport" Available To Faculty And Staff

It is now possible to purchase one season ticket, called the Wheelwright Passport, which will be good for all cultural events during the 1988-89 season. This includes Coastal Carolina Theatre, Wheelwright Council events, the Cultural Arts Series, Coastal Film Society Film Series, and Kimbel Lectures.

This offer is being made available to the college community now through May 15, before it is advertised to the general public.

The Passport includes 20 events at a cost of $88 per person. Individual tickets will cost $130. In addition to a 1/3 savings over individual events tickets, your Wheelwright Passport entitles you to reserved seats for the Kimbel Distinguished Lecture Series and a bonus of season tickets for the Coastal Film Series. You have the option to select choice seats now while they are still available.

The attached brochure includes a chronological listing of events as well as a breakdown of individual series groupings on the reverse side. To order your Passport, please complete the order form and return it with payment to the Wheelwright Box Office before May 15.

Honors Convocation

The annual Honors Convocation recognizing academic, student life, and athletic achievements of our students will be held Thursday, April 21, at 7:30 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium.

All members of the college community are invited to attend.

Graduate Registration Date Set

USC Coastal Carolina College graduate students may register early for the summer I session and schedule appointments for advisement during the week of April 18. Registration will be 3 to 5 p.m. April 18-21.

USC Courses are offered at Coastal in the areas of education, librarianship, English, math, psychology, history, government, art education, journalism, social work, public health administration, and several other disciplines. USC also offers courses at Coastal leading to the Professional MBA degree and the master of engineering degree.

Television instruction in some disciplines provides an alternative to traditional classroom instruction. TV instruction for these courses is offered on closed-circuit television, through ETV, or on tapes.

For information about registration or eligibility requirements, contact Graduate and Continuing Education at Coastal Carolina College between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. daily at 448-1481, 347-3161, or 546-0234, ext. 2671.

"Partners In Progress" Seminar Scheduled

Graduate and Continuing Education will sponsor a one-day seminar for secretaries, "Partners in Progress", April 28, from 9 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. at the Holiday Inn West.

The program will address topics such as professional image, intuitive nature and business etiquette.

Dorothy Mobley Jones, J.D., and Ginger A. Weldon, of the Van Osdell Law Firm, will be the keynote speakers. The keynote address, "Partners in Progress: The Complimentary Relation Between Secretary and Boss", will give secretaries an insight into the cooperative relationship between secretary and boss.

Ms. Jones has broad experience ranging from paralegal instruction to adoption law as well as premarital and divorce law.

Ms. Weldon is vice president of the Horry County

THIS WEEK is published by USC Coastal Carolina College who provides affirmative action and equal opportunity in education and employment for all qualified persons regardless of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, handicap or veteran status.

Behavioral Science Lunch And Lecture Series Dates Set

The Behavioral Science Lunch and Lecture Series announces the last two presentations of the 1987-88 school year scheduled for Thursday, April 21, and Tuesday, April 26. Both lectures will be held at 11:30 a.m. in room 204 of the Student Center.

On Thursday, April 21, the presentation will be by Dr. Jim Henderson, associate professor of government and political science, entitled "Kinds of Conservatism: A Cybernetic Approach to Conservative Ideas."

The presentation on Tuesday, April 26, will be by Dr. Chris Marsh, assistant professor of biology and marine science, entitled "The Ecology of Humpback Whales: Is the Scientific Method Valid in Field Studies?"

Both lectures are free and open to all interested persons. You may bring your lunch and join the group or simply join in the exchange.

For more information, contact Billy Hills, ext. 2276.

Dr. Henry Bokuniewicz To Speak

Dr. Henry Bokuniewicz of the Marine Science Research Center-State University of New York will be speaking on Thursday, April 21 at 11:30 a.m. in the Science Building, room 107.

His topic, "Beach Erosion Problems: Examples from Long Island, New York," will concern the issue of immediate and great economic concern to all coastal communities.

Dr. Bokuniewicz is a member of the New York State Governor's Blue Ribbon Panel on Beach Erosion.

For further information, contact Paul Gayes, assistant professor of marine science, ext. 2213.

Long Bay Symphony Orchestra Performs Free Concert At Wheelwright Auditorium

The Long Bay Symphony Orchestra will perform its first Spring Pops Concert on Saturday, April 23 at 8:00 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium. Admission is free and open to the public.

The Long Bay Symphony Orchestra, comprised of approximately 45 local musicians, was organized in September 1987 and this first performance will mark the beginning of the area's long awaited symphony music availability.

The orchestra has selected an evening of light classical entertainment which will include Schubert's Unfinished Symphony, Handel's Fireworks Music, selections from The Sound of Music, Sousa Marches, as well as many additional musical selections.

For additional information, contact Diana Swanner, Swanner's Music Emporium, at 626-2049.

Rebels and Redcoats Tour Scheduled

Graduate and Continuing Education is offering the Rebels and Redcoats Tour on Friday, April 22, from 9:15 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. The tour group will leave from Wheelwright Auditorium.

This all-day tour, guided by local author Rod Gragg, will visit historic sites of Horry and Georgetown counties.

The admission fee is $30 for adults, $20 for children under 18 (10% discount for senior citizens), which covers transportation and admission to all sites as well as a continental breakfast of doughnuts and juice. A dutch lunch will be available at the Belle Isle Yacht Club.

For information or to register, contact Graduate and Continuing Education, ext. 2676.

Carolina Healthstyle Walk Scheduled

Kick off this summer with an effort to get back in shape! Carolina Healthstyle has scheduled a one-mile walk on Wednesday, April 20, to start you on your way. The walkers will be divided into two groups, one leaving at 11:30 a.m. and the second group leaving at 12:30 p.m.

Anyone wanting to participate should join the group in front of the Physical Education Center a few minutes before the walk begins.

Leadership Challenge Applications Being Accepted

The Office of Minority Student Relations is accepting applications for team leader participation in Leadership Challenge for the 1988-89 academic year.

Leadership Challenge is designed to develop minority campus leaders by enhancing their personal skills and their knowledge of the overall college role in society.

Applicants must be juniors or seniors with a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale. Administrators, faculty, and staff are urged to submit nominations. Application deadline is April 22.

For more information, contact Kathy Watts, ext. 2302, or George Williams, ext. 2304.

A LA CARTE To Be Presented

The Coastal Carolina Choir will sponsor A la Carte on Thursday, April 28 and Friday, April 29, at 8:00 p.m. in Fine Arts Little Theatre.

A la Carte is a piano-vocal program designed and performed by Mary Lucia Norris and Susie Shoman. It is a colorful blend of musical theatre and light opera, arranged in menu form. A la Carte travels throughout the Southeast performing at convention, dinner theatres, banquets, and schools, easily adapting to available space and desired program length. The audience helps to choose selections from the Entree section, enhancing the "Blue Plate Specials" chosen by the artists. Costumes, on-stage props, and informal comedic dialogue contribute to an up-beat, innovative production. With an elegant setting and the charming sights and sounds of Broadway, A la Carte promises to be a special treat from the appetizer to the dessert.

In January 1979, A la Carte received a matching grant from the South Carolina Arts Commission. This allowed A la Carte to begin an extended workshop with composer-playwright Jay Thompson. Thompson continues to serve as a consultant, composer, writer, and director for A la Carte's musical revue.

Tickets are $5 in advance from any choir member, or $6 at the door. Funds raised from this production will be used for special projects by the Coastal Carolina Choir.

For information or tickets, contact Carolyn Cox, ext. 2513.
