"Little Shop of Horrors" Auditions Scheduled

Auditions for "Little Shop of Horrors" will be held on Sunday, August 28 at 2:30 p.m., and, Monday, August 29 and Tuesday, August 30 at 7:30 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium. The performance, under the direction of Dr. David Millard, assistant dean of humanities and fine arts and assistant professor of English, is the season's first presentation in the Coastal Carolina Theatre Series.

"Little Shop of Horrors," by Howard Ashman and Alan Menken, is a delightful musical comedy in which young lovers are threatened by Audrey II, a person-eating plant, and a villainous dentist.

Performance dates are Friday, October 7 and Saturday, October 8, at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday, October 9, at 2:30 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium, and are included in the Wheelwright Passport offerings.

Those who wish to audition will be expected to demonstrate their singing ability and must bring a musical selection to perform.

For additional information, contact David Millard, ext. 2442 or the Wheelwright Box Office, ext. 2502.

Poetry Writing Workshop Offered

A poetry writing workshop for interested beginning to advanced writers will be offered this fall by the English department. The class will be held on Wednesday evenings beginning on August 31 from 6:30 p.m. until 9 p.m., in Kimbel Library.

Instruction in the craft of poetry, as well as assistance in the preparation of manuscripts and identification of potential sources for publication, will be taught by poet Dr. Paul Rice, assistant professor of English. Rice has the MFA in creative writing and the Ph.D. in poetry and poetic theory.

Rice is a widely published poet and reviewer of poetry, with work appearing most recently in the Beloit Poetry Journal and the Georgia Review. His chapbook, The Ossahatchee Codex, recently won the prestigious Atlanta Writing Center Chapbook Contest for 1988 and is scheduled for publication this fall.

For additional information, contact Paul Rice, ext. 2438.
