

9-5-1988

Coastal Carolina College This Week, September 5, 1988

USC Coastal Carolina College

Coastal Carolina University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.coastal.edu/this-week>

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the History Commons

Recommended Citation

USC Coastal Carolina College and Coastal Carolina University, "Coastal Carolina College This Week, September 5, 1988" (1988). Coastal Carolina College This Week. 372.
<https://digitalcommons.coastal.edu/this-week/372>

This Periodical is brought to you for free and open access by the CCU Newsletters at CCU Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Coastal Carolina College This Week by an authorized administrator of CCU Digital Commons. For more information, please contact commons@coastal.edu.

Joyner Appointed to Chair

Chancellor Eaglin has announced the appointment of Dr. Charles Joyner as Burroughs Distinguished Professor of Southern History and Culture at Coastal.

Joyner, professor of history at the University of Alabama, was selected following a national search to fill Coastal's first academic chair, established by the late Henry B. Burroughs Sr. of Conway in memory of his father and mother, Franklin Augustus Burroughs and Iola Buck Burroughs.

A native of Horry county, Joyner is an internationally recognized scholar who has published and lectured widely in the United States, Great Britain, Canada, Norway, New Zealand, Australia, and Yugoslavia. He is the author of two books and more than thirty articles.

Joyner's Down by the Riverside: A South Carolina Slave Community was the 1987 winner of the National University Press Book Award, given by the Eugene M. Kayden fund to the best book in the humanities published by a university press. The book also won second place in the prestigious University of Chicago international folklore competition.

Down by the Riverside, now in its seventh printing, is a portrayal of slave life on the rice plantations of the Waccamaw River in the South Carolina lowcountry. It has been called "the finest work ever written on American slavery." This fall the book will be required in several courses at Harvard University as well as many other universities in the United States and Canada.

In the fall of 1986 Joyner was visiting professor of history at the University of California, Berkeley. In the spring of 1987 he served as Ford Foundation Professor of Southern Studies at the University of Mississippi.

He has been a consultant for several television productions, and for the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation, the National Geographic Society, the Smithsonian Institution, and the Library of Congress.

Joyner is a graduate of Myrtle Beach High School and Presbyterian College. He earned a Ph.D. in history from the University of South Carolina and a second Ph.D. in Folklore and Folklife from the University of Pennsylvania. He also did post-doctoral work at Harvard University.

New Faculty At Coastal

Coastal Carolina College welcomes the following new faculty members:

Dr. Jesse Brown, assistant professor of early childhood education, who comes to Coastal from Indiana State University. Brown holds a B.S. from Northern Illinois University, an M.S. from Indiana State University, and an Ed.D. from Indiana University.

Tommye Ellison, instructor of early childhood education, who has been an adjunct faculty member at Coastal and a public school teacher in South Carolina and Georgia. Ellison earned a B.S. from University of Tennessee at Chattanooga, and M.Ed. from University of South Carolina. She is a doctoral candidate at USC.

Sharon Guffey, instructor in nursing, who most recently was critical care unit charge nurse at Grand Strand General Hospital. Guffey earned a B.S. at St. Joseph's College, an Associate Degree in Technical Nursing at Greenville Technical College, and completed additional study at Wake Forest University and Winthrop College.

Virginia Stanley, instructor in elementary education, who comes to Coastal with experience as a speech therapist, tutor, remedial reading teacher, and four years as a middle school assistant principal. She has a B.S. in speech pathology from Auburn University, an M.Ed. in reading from University of South Carolina, and is a doctoral candidate in education from USC.

Barbara Palmer, teacher-in-residence, from Socastee Elementary School. Palmer has more than seven years teaching experience on the elementary level. Her degrees are a B.S. from the University of South Carolina at Spartanburg, and an M.Ed. from Converse College.

Jeffrey P. Linder, assistant professor of computer science, who was an instructor of computer science at Western Illinois University. He holds an M.S. in computer science from Western Illinois University, a B.S.Ed. from Illinois State University, and an associate degree from Illinois Valley Community College.

Dr. William F. Thomas, assistant professor of accounting, who was an assistant professor at George Washington University. He has a B.A. from Wofford College, and a Ph.D. from University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Dr. John Beard, assistant professor of English, whose field is contemporary literature. Beard earned his B.S., M.A. and Ph.D. from Florida State University.

Dr. Eva Fuchs, assistant professor of English, whose field is Victorian literature. She received her A.B., M.A., and Ph.D. from University of California at Berkeley.

Linda Hollandsworth, instructor of English and speech, who has been an adjunct faculty member at Coastal. Her field is composition and speech. She holds a B.A. from Greensboro College, an M.A. from Hollins College, and is Ph.D. candidate at Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Charles Joyner, Burroughs Professor of Southern History and Culture and director of the Waccamaw Regional Studies Project. Joyner returns to Coastal from the University of Alabama. He earned his Ph.D. in history at the University of South Carolina, and Ph.D. in folklore and folklife at the University of Pennsylvania.

Linda Kuykendall, instructor of English and speech, who has been an adjunct faculty member at Coastal. Her field is communications. Kuykendall earned a B.A. from Loyola University of the South at New Orleans and an M.S. from University of Southwestern Louisiana.

Peter Lecouras, instructor of English, a former adjunct faculty member at Coastal. He has a B.A. and M.S. from the University of South Carolina. His fields are comparative literature and grants development.

Preston McKeever-Floyd, instructor of philosophy and religion and former adjunct faculty member. His fields are theology and philosophy. He has a B.A. from Virginia State University and a master of divinity from Duke University. He is a Ph.D. candidate at Emory University.

Jeffrey Nichols, visiting assistant professor of theater from University of Maine. His fields are directing and theater tech. He has a B.A. from Western Reserve University, an M.A. from University of Maine at Orono, and an MFA in directing from the University of Mass., at Amherst.

Laura Pharis, assistant professor of art, whose fields are printmaking and drawing. She has a BFA from Virginia Commonwealth University and an MFA from University of Wisconsin.

Phillip Powell, instructor of music, comes from Indiana University. His fields are piano and piano pedagogy. He has a bachelor of music in piano from the University of Oklahoma, and a master of music in piano from Indiana University.

Dr. Elda Wilmot, associate professor of foreign languages, is from Biola University. Her fields are Spanish, French, and Spanish American literature. She has a B.A., M.A., and Ph.D. from the University of Southern California.

Charles Wright, assistant professor of art and former Coastal adjunct faculty whose field is sculpture. He has a B.F.A. from Kent State University and an MFA in sculpture from Washington University at St. Louis.

Dr. Michael Ferguson, associate professor of biology, comes from South Dakota State University. He has a B.A. from California State University, an M.S. from California State Polytechnic University, and a Ph.D. from Kansas State University.

Sandy Molander, instructor of biology, returns as a full-time instructor. She has a B.A. from Rockford College and an M.S. from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh.

Amy Nelson, instructor of marine science, was most recently employed by Molecular Genetics, Inc. and the Baruch Institute. She has a B.A. from Gustavus Adolphus College and an M.S. from University of South Carolina.

Dr. M. Lesley O'Conner, visiting assistant professor of mathematics, comes to Coastal from the University of Maryland in Munich. O'Conner holds a B.Sc. from University of London, and an M.A. and Ph. D. from University of California.

Joseph Parker, instructor of mathematics, is a former adjunct faculty member at Coastal. He has a B.S. and an M.S. from the University of South Carolina.

Donnita Thrash, instructor of mathematics, was formerly and instructor at Conway High School. She has a B.S. and M.S. from Texas Tech University.

Mohammed S. Zouyoufain, visiting assistant professor of mathematics, has taught mathematics at Dallas County Community College and has worked in international relations for the Department of Commerce, Tehran. He has a B.S. from Tehran Business College, Tehran, Iran; an M.S. from University of Texas at Dallas; and is a Ph.D. candidate in mathematical sciences at the University of Texas at Arlington.

Dr. Tricia Reeves, assistant professor of physics, comes from St. Mary's College of Maryland. Reeves has a B.A. from Newcomb College of Tulane University, and an M.S. and a Ph.D. from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Michael Sloothaak, instructor of physics, has taught at Western Michigan and Loyola University. He has a B.S. and M.S. from Western Michigan University.

Mollie Starbuck, career placement counselor and job locator service, returns to Coastal in a permanent position. She has an A.B. in art with a minor in journalism from Marshall University and an M.A. in counseling from West Virginia College of Graduate Studies.

Gwenda Hemingway, reference/information retrieval librarian, joins the library staff. She has a bachelor of business administration and an M.L.S.-North Carolina Central University.

Michael Hopkins, assistant basketball coach, returns to Coastal where he earned his B.S. degree. He was a high school coach at Aiken High School.

Deborah Fore, head volleyball coach and assistant women's basketball coach, comes from Susquehanna University. She has a B.S. from Longwood College and an M.A.Ed. from Lynchburg College.

Mike Murphy, assistant men's basketball coach and athletic academic advisor, comes from the University of Alabama. He has a B.A. from Cardinal Stritch College and a masters from University of Alabama.

Tom Collins, sports information director, comes from North Edgecombe High School in Tarboro, NC. He has a B.S. from Campbell University and an M.A.Ed. from East Carolina University.

Marine Science And Geology To Host Guest Speaker On Marine Litter

Ms. Elizabeth Day, area marine extension agent for the South Carolina Sea Grant Consortium will speak on "Marine Litter," Tuesday, September 20 at 11:30 a.m. in the Science Building, room 106. The program is free and open to the public.

Day is involved in the Horry and Georgetown County planning of the "National Beach Clean-Up" program and will be seeking volunteers from Coastal to participate in this program. Volunteers will also collect raw data to contribute to a study of the types of marine litter that exists along the South Carolina coast.

South Carolina's beaches, harbors and tidal inlets are being flooded with trash. More than being unsightly, it's dangerous. Out at sea, marine animals and birds by the hundreds of thousands are dying as a result of eating plastics and other debris in our oceans, or from being entangled in it.

"National Beach Clean-Up" day is Saturday, September 24. This is the first time this event will be formally held along the grand strand and is an opportunity to help clean up the marine environment. Volunteers, both as individuals and organizations, are invited to sign up for the beach of their choice, where they will be given degradable bags.

For further information, contact Dr. Paul Gayes, department of marine science, ext. 2213.

Disability Continuation Income Plan Available To State Employees

Sick leave normally provides for continuation of income for short periods of illness; however, many of us could face financial difficulties should we suffer a long-term disability caused by either accident or sickness.

Through an arrangement with the Jefferson-Pilot Life Insurance, State employees may purchase Income Protection Insurance which would provide tax-free income during periods of disability. The premiums may be paid through Payroll Deduction.

Our representative, James W. Burgess, will be on campus Wednesday, September 7, in the Student Center, room 201.

If you would like to find out more about this Disability Continuation Income Plan, please call the Personnel Office, ext. 2035 or 2036. Since there will be no general meeting, it will be necessary to schedule an appointment.

Thomas Cooper's Film Library Requests

Faculty members requesting films from Thomas Cooper's Film Library are asked to give at least two weeks notice of request. Shuttle service to Coastal has been reduced to one day a week this semester, which will be on Monday, starting September 12.

When a film is sent to Kimbel Library on the Monday shuttle, it will be due back in Kimbel Library on the following Friday so it can be returned on Columbia on the 8:20 a.m. Monday shuttle. Your cooperation in meeting these deadlines is appreciated.

The film catalog and request forms are available in Kimbel Library by contacting Joan Caldwell, ext. 2402.

Time to Think About '89

Office of Admission Update

*Student Center and Spadoni
Park Parking Facilities
Reserved For September 8*

The Admissions Office and the Carolinas Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers will host the regional South Carolina Guidance Counselors Conference on September 8 in Wheelwright Auditorium. The Student Center and Spadoni Park parking areas have been reserved for our guests from 8 a.m. until 3 p.m.

Please announce to your classes that these parking facilities will be unavailable for faculty, staff and students during the designated times on Thursday, September 8. We apologize for the inconvenience.

Icelandic Conversation Course Offered

The office of international programs invites faculty and staff to take part in a course in conversational Icelandic beginning September 16. Fridthjofur Olason, an international student at Coastal, will be teaching the one day a week course.

Cost for the course will be $20 which will include materials. Students participating in the course, and their spouses, will be eligible to take part in a trip to Iceland in May. Group rates will apply, with an optional open trip to Europe as well.

Class schedules will be determined based upon available time of participants. For additional information, contact Steve Nagle, ext. 2054, or Sara Sanders, ext. 2052.

Delphin And Romain To Perform At Coastal

The Cultural Arts Series at Coastal will open its 1988-89 season with a Sunday afternoon soiree with pianists Winfred Delphin and Edwin Romain, who were recently adopted as true sons of Charleston. The performance will be held Sunday, September 18 at 2:30 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium and is the first selection in the Wheelwright Passport.

The duo are delightful interpreters of classic piano repertoire and are known for their exuberant interpretations of bravura compositions, with the team's treatment of Mozart being described as bright and effective.

Delphin and Romain began their musical partnership while attending college in 1968, and made their professional debut in 1977 as soloists with the Symphony of the New World in New York's Carnegie Hall. Since then, they have performed throughout the world, playing with the finest of orchestras including the Cleveland Orchestra, Atlanta Symphony, and the New Orleans Philharmonic.

Presently, they are the only black duo pianists who tour and perform professionally, displaying an energy and enthusiasm in their performances tempered by smooth coordination and impeccable ensemble.

Tickets for the performance are $7 for persons without a Wheelwright Passport. Passport applications are currently available. For more information or to make reservations, contact the Wheelwright Box Office, ext. 2502.

Reference System For International Travel Available

The office of international programs has compiled a computerized reference system for international points of travel all over the world. If you would like to review this information, please call Geoff Parsons, ext. 2054.

Physical Education Center Offers Non-Credit Courses

The Physical Education Center will offer a variety of non-credit classes for fall 1988. The first session will be held September 12 through October 7. Saturday classes will be September 10 through October 29.

Classes will be available in beginning and advanced swimming, tennis, weight training, Karate, aerobics, scuba, diving, ABLE, lifesaving, water exercise, water safety instruction, junior swim team, and a personalized fitness program.

Cost for the courses range from $10 to $30 per course. Members, full-time faculty, full-time staff, and students may enroll for half-price.

For more information or to register, contact the Physical Education Center, ext. 2802.

Orientation Tours of Kimbel Library Offered

Kimbel Library will be conducting 30-minute orientation tours for students, faculty and staff which will point out locations for materials and will explain library services. Tour groups will meet at the library's Information Desk at the following scheduled times. Advance registration is not necessary.

Scheduled tours will be held:

Tuesday, September 6, 10:00 a.m.
Wednesday, September 7, 1:30 p.m.
Thursday, September 8, 11:30 a.m.
Monday, September 12, 2:30 p.m.
Thursday, September 15, 9:30 a.m.

Note: These tours are not intended to take the place of group library instruction for entire classes. Please continue to schedule such tours or class visits by contacting Mary Bull, ext. 2404.

"Wheelwright Passport" Available

It is now possible to purchase one season ticket, called the Wheelwright Passport, which will be good for all cultural events during the 1988-89 season. This includes Coastal Carolina Theatre, Wheelwright Council events, the Cultural Arts Series, Coastal Film Society Film Series, and Kimbel Lectures.

The Passport includes 20 events at a cost of $88 per person. Individual tickets will cost $130. In addition to a 1/3 savings over individual events tickets, your Wheelwright Passport entitles you to reserved seats for the Kimbel Distinguished Lecture Series and a bonus of season tickets for the Coastal Film Series. You have the option to select choice seats now while they are still available.

Contact Wheelwright Box Office for a brochure that includes a chronological listing of events as well as a breakdown of individual series groupings.

Theater of the Republic Auditions Held

Auditions for Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat presented by the Theater of the Republic will be held on Sunday, September 11 at 3:30 p.m. and Tuesday, September 13, at 7:30 p.m. in the McCown Auditorium in Conway. The cast will consist of 20 male and 10 female singing parts.

The performance, directed by Joyce Parker, associate professor of English, will be presented November 11 through 13. Faculty, staff, and students are welcome to audition.

For additional information, contact Joyce B. Parker at 349-2422, 448-1481 or 546-0234, ext. 2422.

Coastal Carolina People

o Dr. Douglas Nelson, professor of marine science, recently presented one of his research projects at Ohio State University in Columbus, Ohio for the mid-year meeting of the Society of Economic Paleontologists and Mineralogists. This is the largest and most active organization of sedimentary geologists. The presentation titled "Shape sorting of sand grains between the beach and adjacent dunes," reported on research conducted at Huntington Beach State Park.

o Dr. Sara Sanders, assistant professor of English, was awarded an Academic Specialist Grant from the U. S. Information Agency to consult with the Binational Center in Montevideo, Uruguay, in the areas of ESL curriculum, methods, and program administration July 9 through August 11, 1988. While in Montevideo, Sanders gave the plenary address at the first national meeting of Uruguay- TESOL (Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages) on the topic "Reading and Writing as Process."

Campus Calendar

September 5:

Labor Day Holiday

September 6:

Cabinet Meeting, 2 p.m., EMS Conf.

Reception for Minority Students, 5 p.m., SC overflow.

Kimbel Library Orientation Tour, 10 a.m., KL.

September 7:

Disability Continuation Income Plan Meetings, SC-201.

Kimbel Library Orientation Tour, 1:30 p.m., KL.

Men's Soccer, Coastal vs. Francis Marion, 5 p.m., away.

September 8:

S.C. Guidance Counselors Conference, 8 a.m. to 3 p.m., WA.

Kimbel Library Orientation Tour, 11:30 a.m., KL.

September 10:

Men's Soccer, Coastal vs. Georgia Southern, 7 p.m., home.

USC Football Systems Day, USC vs. Western Carolina,
Columbia campus.

September 11:

Sunday Chapel, 10:30 a.m., SC-205.

Women's Volleyball, Coastal vs. Furman, 3 p.m., home.

September 12:

Kimbel Library Orientation Tour, 2:30 p.m., KL.