Edwin Newman Scheduled As Spring Lecturer For Kimbel Distinguished Lecture Series

Edwin Newman, a 35-year veteran of NBC-TV News, will speak at Coastal, Tuesday, April 4, at 8 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium, as part of the Kimbel Distinguished Lecture Series. Although the lecture is free and open to the public, tickets are required for admission. They are available on a first-come, first-served basis at Wheelwright box office, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Newman retired from NBC News in 1984, after 35 years with the network. During that time, he headed the NBC bureaus in London, Rome and Paris, reported from three dozen countries and anchored nearly every kind of news program the network produced.

Newman has appeared numerous times on NBC-TV's "Saturday Night Live," and has served as moderator of two presidential debates. He has been described as the only host of "Saturday Night Live" to moderate a presidential debate, and the only moderator of a presidential debate ever to be host of "Saturday Night Live."

Newman's journalistic career began in Washington in 1941, after graduating from the University of Wisconsin and completing a semester of graduate work at Louisiana State University. He went to work for the International News Service and then moved on to the United Press. He spent three and a half years in the Navy during World War II, then returned to wire service and newspaper reporting until 1947, when he took the position of news writer at CBS in Washington for two years. In 1949, he made the transition to NBC in London.

Newman worked with the NBC Religious Programs Unit and NBC Sports, and he hosted broadcasts from Tanglewood by the Boston Symphony Orchestra. He also has been a questioner and panel member for the Metropolitan Opera Quiz. He has received awards and honors for reporting from abroad, commentary, documentary reporting, interviewing and drama criticism.

Newman is well-known for his views on the state of the English language. His books on the subject, Strictly Speaking and A Civil Tongue, were best sellers. He has served as chairman of the usage panel of the American Heritage Dictionary and as a consultant on a series of textbooks on grammar and composition published by Houghton Mifflin. He also has written on a variety of topics for many American, British and Canadian publications including Reader's Digest, Harpers, Esquire, The Atlantic, The New York Times Magazine, Geo, Newsweek, Saturday Review, Psychology Today, and Punch. His comic novel, Sunday Punch, was published in 1979.

Newman is active on the lecture-circuit and has continued to work in television, anchoring numerous programs on PBS, including the series, "Congress: We the People," and the annual conferences of former secretaries of state.

The Kimbel Distinguished Lecture Series is sponsored by the Kimbel Trust, the Episcopal Diocese of South Carolina, The Sun News, Coastal Educational Foundation, Inc. and USC Coastal Carolina College.

For more information about the lecture, phone Wheelwright box office, ext. 2502.

Seminar Series On Future Of Coastal For Faculty And Staff

The fourth in a series of programs for faculty and staff on the future of Coastal is scheduled for Tuesday, March 28 from 3 to 5 p.m. in the Fine Arts Little Theater.

The guests for this program are Jack Hutchinson from the Horry County Development Board; Jack Kendree from the Georgetown County Development Board; and Bill Schwartzkopf from the Waccamaw Regional Planning and Development Council.

The seminars are designed to help faculty and administrators understand the potential future role of Coastal. Guests will explain what they do and how the college has been involved in the past, and will talk about how they see Coastal in the future of this region. The informality of the program should lead to numerous interactive questions and answers. The goal is to help all of us understand what the community expects of us, and then to use this information to help formulate how we can be helpful in the future development of this region.

The fifth program, scheduled for Tuesday, April 4, will have as guests Ashby Ward from the Grand Strand Myrtle Beach Chamber of Commerce; Debbie Clemmons from the Conway Chamber of Commerce; and Bill Oberst from the Georgetown Chamber of Commerce. The seminar will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. in the Fine Arts Little Theater.

The series on the Future Role of Coastal will continue with programs scheduled for April 11 and April 17, from 3 to 5 p.m. in the Fine Arts Little Theater. Information concerning the remaining sessions will be forthcoming in This Week.

All faculty and staff are encouraged to attend. For more information, contact the Chancellor's office, ext. 2002.

Summer Job Fair 89

Coastal will hold "Summer Job Fair 1989" Wednesday, March 29 and Thursday, March 30 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in Spadoni Park on the Coastal campus. In the case of inclement weather, the fair will be held in the Student Center, rooms 204 and 205.

The event is free and open to Coastal students and local businesses that are interested in employing Coastal students this summer. Students in the area who attend other colleges are also invited to attend the fair.

Sponsored by the Job Locator Office at Coastal, the job fair will include approximately 25 business representatives who will discuss employment opportunities during the two-day event.

Radio disc jockey Lloyd Maxwell of WYAV-104 will be at the fair from 10:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. each day providing music. Free soft drinks will also be available.

For more information about the event, contact Kathleen Fleming at the Career Planning and Placement Office, ext. 2333.

Faculty/Staff VS. Alumni Softball Game Scheduled

A faculty/staff vs. alumni softball game has been scheduled for Monday, April 3 at 4 p.m. on the softball field. All faculty and staff interested in playing should contact Bob Squatriglia, ext. 2300, or Patrick Snell, ext. 2006, by the March 30 deadline.

Admissions Open House Scheduled

Coastal will hold an open house, Saturday, April 1, from 12:30 to 4:30 p.m. The program is sponsored by the Admissions Office and is free and open to the public.

The USC Coastal Carolina Gospel Choir will perform during sign-in time from 12:30 to 1 p.m. in Spadoni Park. Between 1:15 and 2 p.m., visitors will meet college representatives and view a slide show about Coastal in Wheelwright Auditorium.

From 2 to 4:30 p.m., visitors may take tours of the campus, meet Coastal alumni, visit with representatives of academic schools, and learn about student development services, such as financial aid and support services such as counseling. Refreshments also will be available.

For more information, contact Robin Causey, ext 2026. The Admissions Office requests that individuals who plan to attend the open house, call in advance.

Alumni Association Plans Annual Meeting, Banquet And Dance

Coastal's Alumni Association will hold their annual meeting, banquet and dance, Saturday, April 1, at the Sea Mist Resort, North/South Carolina Ballroom, 1200 South Ocean Boulevard in Myrtle Beach. The program will begin with a reception at 6:30 p.m. and continue with dinner at 7 p.m., the annual meeting at 8 p.m. and a dance from 9 p.m. to midnight.

The first "Alumnus of The Year" award will be announced during the annual meeting.

The following classes will be celebrating class reunions on this date:

Dr. Donald Harper Lecture Scheduled At Coastal

Dr. Donald Harper, an expert in the area of clinical psychopharmacology, will present a lecture entitled "The Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil and Drug Abuse of the Psychobiology of Religion," Monday, April 3, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the Student Center, room 205, at USC Coastal Carolina College. The presentation is sponsored by the Psychology and Philosophy clubs, and is free and open to the public.

Harper has conducted research in areas such as kidney malfunctions, regulation of blood pressure, and the effects of certain medications and drugs.

After completing a year of research in psychopharmacology, Harper served an internship at Presbyterian Hospital in Dallas. He then went on to New Haven, Connecticut to undergo a training program in neurology at Yale University with an emphasis on behavioral neurology. During that time, he also was a post-doctoral fellow and presented resident and medical community lectures on a variety of subjects.

Harper is presently in private practice in Lafayette, Louisiana. After implementing the Department of Neurology for a large multi-specialty group, he developed an independent practice, helping patients with difficult pain management problems and was a consultant for the Indigent Defender's Office. He has taught neurology at the University Medical Center in Louisiana. Recently he has been involved with the Louisiana State Medical Society Committee on Chronic Diseases and the Pharmacy and Ethics Committees of Lafayette General Hospital. He also is a physician member of the National Headache Foundation and is a certified addictionologist.

A native of Kansas City, Missouri, Harper received his undergraduate training at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where he was a National Merit Scholar. He received his graduate education from the Harvard Medical School, Southwestern Medical School, and his doctoral education from the University of Texas Health Science Center at Dallas.

For more information about the lecture, contact the Psychology Department at Coastal, ext. 2273.

CINO Day Activities Scheduled

Coastal's Annual Coastal Is Number One (CINO) Day, sponsored by Campus Union, will be Friday, April 7, 12 noon to 5 p.m. on the soccer field. The events are open to faculty, staff and students.

Team games are scheduled and music will be provided by the band "Leggs" and Dance Ltd. Show.

Faculty, staff and students are encouraged to participate in the team games. Teams consists of eight people, plus two alternates. Each team must have four male and four female participants. Team applications are available in the student activities office.

Applications are also being taken for ten student assistants to work during CINO Day. The assistants will be paid $25 for the day and applications can be obtained in the student activities office.

Admission is $3 each and includes a barbecue dinner, free pepsi, a CINO Day mug, and a video button. Video buttons will display the person's picture taken that day. CINO Day T-shirts are available for $5 each.

For more information, contact Aniza Rowe, ext. 2326.

Coastal's Annual Women's Conference To Be Held In April

Coastal will hold its 1989 Conference on Women, "Women's Ways of Knowing," Saturday, April 15 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the college. Registration will be from 8:30 to 11 a.m.

Professionals throughout the state will attend the conference, and will discuss topics such as women and medical issues; stress management; women and leadership; women and the home environment; the building of self-esteem; women and politics; and women and intuition.

The conference will feature writers Nancy Goldberger, author of the highly-acclaimed book Women's Ways of Knowing, and Eleanora Tate, Myrtle Beach resident and author of the children's books The Secret of Gumbo Grove and Just an Overnight Guest.

Goldberger is a visiting scholar in psychology at New York University. In her book, she and fellow colleagues examine women's ways of knowing and describe five different perspectives that women view reality and draw conclusions about truth, knowledge and authority.

Tate is president of the public relations firm, Positive Images. She works to promote a positive image of women and black culture through her books and lectures.

This year's conference is co-sponsored by Graduate and Continuing Education, the South Carolina Women in Higher Education Administration, Coast magazine, USC Columbia Women Student's Services, and USC Coastal Division of Student Development.

Registration fee for the conference is $59 and includes lunch. Deadline for registration is March 31. Early registration is requested, as space is limited. Late registration will be accepted after March 31. Late registration fee is $75.

Scholarships are available to women who cannot attend the conference otherwise.

For more information about registration or scholarships, contact Audrey Garland, ext. 2672.

Graduate Registration Scheduled At Coastal

USC Coastal Carolina College graduate students may schedule appointments for advisement Monday, April 17 through Thursday, April 20. Students also may register early for the fall semester, from 3 to 4:30 p.m. in the registrar's office during the week.

According to Helen Hood, Graduate and Continuing

Education advisor at Coastal, there will be no early registration or advisement before the Summer I and Summer II sessions. Registration for the Summer I session that begins Monday, June 5, will be Thursday, June 1 and Friday, June 2, from 3 to 4:30 p.m. Summer II registration will be Thursday, July 6 and Friday, July 7, from 3 to 4:30 p.m., with classes beginning Monday, July 10.

USC graduate courses are offered at Coastal in the areas of education, librarianship, English, math, psychology, history, government, art education, journalism, social work, public health administration, and several other disciplines. USC also offers courses at Coastal leading to the Professional MBA degree and the master of engineering degree.

Television instruction in some disciplines provides an alternative to traditional classroom instruction. TV instruction for these courses is offered on closed-circuit television, through ETV or on tapes.

For more information about registration or eligibility requirements, contact Helen Hood, ext. 2671, between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Kimbel Library Information For Faculty And Staff

Kimbel Library Adds 150,000th Volume

Dr. Roy Talbert's FDR's Utopian: Arthur Morgan of the TVA has been catalogued as the library's 150,000th volume to be added to the permanent collection of Kimbel Library. Dr. Talbert's book is featured in the library's browsing section at the entrance of the library.

Thomas Cooper Library Film Service Schedule

Faculty who borrow films from the film library at Thomas Cooper Library must bring the films back to Kimbel Library no later than the Friday afternoon before the Monday due to changes in the shuttle mail pick up. Faculty are also reminded that films must be ordered two weeks before the show date.

Tax Forms Available

With the April 15 tax deadline fast approaching, Kimbel Library has available copies of state and federal tax forms on racks just inside the library entrance. Additional forms to copy are available at the circulation desk.

Summer Housing For Graduate Faculty Needed

Summer housing is needed for graduate faculty for two to five week rentals during both summer sessions. Anyone interested in renting to faculty during either session, please contact Sally Hare or Helen Hood, Graduate and Continuing Education, ext. 2671 or 2672.

Admissions Office To Sponsor Final Program In "Straight Talks" Series

The final program scheduled in the "Straight Talks" series, sponsored by the Office of Admission, will be Wednesday,

March 29, at 7 p.m. in the Fine Arts Little Theater. The informational program, "Straight Talk About Adult Enrollment," is free and open to the public

Adults who are thinking about starting or returning to college will find this session helpful. Representatives from the Office of Admission and the Continuing and Graduate Education Department will provide information about entrance requirements for undergraduate and graduate programs; continuing education seminars, workshops, and community education courses; the Third Quarter program for retirement-age people; and advice about what to expect when returning to the classroom after a number of years. Older students who are attending Coastal will discuss their personal experiences of returning to school.

For more information, contact the Office of Admission, ext. 2026. Registration is not required; however, because of space limitations, it would be helpful to know if you plan to attend.

Spring '89 Camporee

Playcard Environmental Education Center will sponsor Spring '89 Camporee, a family camping adventure, Friday, April 14 through Sunday, April 16. The events will begin on Friday at 5 p.m. and end on Sunday at 10 a.m. The program is open to the public.

Families are invited to participate in a weekend of fun and adventure with camping, contests, games, canoeing, nature walks, and many other activities. An interdominational worship service is planned for Sunday morning prior to departure.

There are no fees for the Spring '89 Camporee; however, pre-registration is required. Campfires will be available for cooking, but campers must bring their own food. Some camping equipment will be available by request, if needed.

For additional information, to register, or to reserve equipment, contact Karen Hise, ext. 2929.

Alcohol And Drug Prevention Program Sponsors Events

Coastal's Alcohol and Drug Prevention program has scheduled the following events for April:

Monday, April 17: Captain Woody Perry, a detective with the Myrtle Beach Police Department, will lecture at 7 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium. His topic is "Legal Issues of Drug Use." The lecture will be followed by a question and answer session. The lecture is free and open to the public.

Wednesday, April 19: Health Run. 5K (3.1 miles) race (run, race or crawl) with refreshments and a party to follow.

Trophies awarded. Begins at 1:30 p.m. in front of the Student Center. Registration forms are available by contacting Vicki Gardner in the Student Center. Pre-registration is requested by March 31; however, participants may register the day of the race from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. at the Student Center.

For more information, contact Vicki Gardner, ext. 2340.

Coastal To Participate In "WalkAmerica" For March Of Dimes

Coastal faculty, staff and students will be participating as a team in "WalkAmerica" for the March of Dimes to raise money for the prevention of birth defects. The "WalkAmerica" walk will be Saturday, April 8 beginning at 9 a.m. at the Pavilion in Myrtle Beach.

Last year 1,800 Horry County area participants (60 teams) walked and raised over $65,000. This year's walk has more than 100 teams registered and is expected to go well beyond the dollar amount raised last year.

Coastal's team captain, Kay Kierspe of student health services, asks all faculty, staff, and students to join together as a team through group/organization/club/school participation, or as individuals, to support this worthwhile community project.

Various groups on campus will be working to raise money and will be challenging other groups or areas to exceed their contributions. Updated information on the progress of Coastal's WalkAmerica participation will be listed in This Week and The Chanticleer.

For more information about participating as a walker or making donations, contact Kay Kierspe, ext. 2329, Vicki Gardner, ext. 2340, or Nancy Burton, Horry County WalkAmerica executive committee member, ext. 2003.

Graduate And Continuing Education Offers Spring Educational Trips

Graduate and Continuing Education is offering two educational trips this spring. The first trip is to Charleston, South Carolina, Saturday, April 1 and Sunday, April 2. The second trip is to Chinqua-Penn, Old Salem and the Reynolda House in North Carolina, Saturday, May 13 and Sunday, May 14. Both trips are open to the public.

The two-day trip to Charleston will include a guided tour of Charleston including the Battery; visits to two southern homes; trip to the city market; harbor cruise; Magnolia Plantation and Gardens; and Boone Hall, the house from Tara in "Gone with the Wind" and Mount Royal from "North and South."
