Public Forum On Panama Scheduled

A public forum on the "Deep Background and Recent U.S. Foreign Implication in Panama," will be held at Coastal, Tuesday, May 23, from 7 to 9 p.m. in SC-205. The forum is free and open to the public.

Dr. James Henderson and Dr. Richard Collin will conduct the discussion. Both are considered experts in the fields of foreign and international politics.

For more information, contact Graduate and Continuing Education, ext. 2672. Although pre-registration is not required, the college requests that individuals who plan to attend the forum call the office in advance.

Coastal To Present "A Healthy Lifestyle" Seminar

In an effort to promote a better life through improved health, Coastal will present "A Healthy Lifestyle," Monday, May 22 at Aynor High School, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. The free health seminar is open to the public.

The seminar will discuss several health-related issues that include how to live a healthier life; how emotional well-being affects health; health risk factors; and how to live a longer life.

Dr. Marshall Parker, assistant dean of education and health professions and director of the physical education center at Coastal is coordinator of the seminar.

The seminar is sponsored by The Center for Rural Development through the Department of Education and Health Professions at the college.

For more information, contact Aubie Melot, coordinator of the program, ext. 2617.

Final Rebels And Redcoats Tour Of The Season Scheduled For May 26

The traditions and events that make up the rich history of Horry and Georgetown counties will be recounted during the Rebels and Redcoats History Tour, sponsored by Graduate and Continuing Education, Friday, May 26, from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. This will be the last tour of the season.

The all-day tour will be conducted by Rod Gragg, author of Pirates, Planters and Patriots: Historical Tales of the South Carolina Grand Strand, and will visit historical sites in the Waccamaw-Grand Strand region. Among the sites visited will be Hampton Plantation, a plantation built circa 1730 which is listed on the National Historical Register for Architecture and was the home of the first governor of South Carolina; Hopsewee Plantation, home of Thomas Lynch, a signer of the Declaration of Independence; Battery White, a huge Confederate Fort overlooking Winyah Bay; Kingston Presbyterian Church on the banks of the Waccamaw River in Conway; the Horry County Museum; and Prince George Winyah Episcopal Church in Georgetown, which is said to have been a stable used for British horses during the Revolution.

The tour leaves Wheelwright Auditorium at 9:30 a.m. and returns at approximately 5 p.m. The $35 admission fee ($20 for children), covers transportation and admission to all sites. A dutch lunch will be available.

For reservations, contact Graduate and Continuing Education, ext. 2672.

Credit Union News

The USC system credit union opened 169 new accounts for a total of $307,284.39, new loans that totaled $278,495.00 and 131 payroll deductions totaling over $4,000.00 per pay period during grand opening week.

The grand prize was won by Mildred Monteith who works in purchasing on the Columbia campus. Monteith has been a member of the credit union since 1968.

Appreciation is extended to all members who made the grand opening such a huge success!

College Service Tuition Awards Applications Available

College service tuition awards applications for the fall 1989 and spring 1990 academic year are now available in the scholarship office. College service tuition awards are available to students participating in selected campus activities; students demonstrating academic excellence; minority students; and students who are dependents of persons in full-time college service.

The deadline for applications is July 31, 1989.

For more information and applications, contact Margaret Ammons in the scholarship office, ext. 2012.

Golf Tournament Scheduled

The first annual Coastal Plantations Golf Tournament will be held June 17 at Wachesaw Plantation. This is a benefit to support a program of archaeology at Coastal to be headed by James L. Michie. Professor Michie has done outstanding work over the last several years in investigating the sites of colonial and antebellum plantations along the Waccamaw River and has spoken several times at Brookgreen Gardens. An archaeology program at Coastal Carolina College will provide the basis for continued progress in exploring the physical history of our unique area.

The tournament will be open to both men and women with a shotgun start at 9 a.m. During the tournament, non-golfers can enjoy a tour, conducted by Professor Michie, of the several archaeological sites at Wachesaw. Immediately following golf, there will be a buffet and awards ceremony on the riverfront deck at Kimbel's.

Tax-free contributions to the Coastal Educational Foundation, Inc. will be $100 per player. Non-golfers can enjoy the buffet for an additional donation of $15. Reservations can be made by calling Nadine Godwin, ext. 2014, or the Wachesaw Pro Shop, 357-1500 or 1-800-922-5834.

Physical Education Center Sponsors Summer Sports Day Camp For Children

The Physical Education Center will sponsor a summer sports day camp for children ages seven through 12 from June 5 through June 30. Children may enroll in weekly sessions or for the entire four weeks.

Participants will have the opportunity to receive sports instruction in various activities such as swimming, diving, gymnastics, tennis, basketball, volleyball, softball, soccer, racquetball, aerobics, team games, crafts, music and discussions on health and nutrition.

Dr. Marshall Parker, assistant dean of education and health professions, will be the camp director and Karen Connolly, Coastal's aquatics director, will direct all the aquatics activities.

The weekly fees are $40 per child from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. or $55 per child from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Children of faculty and staff will receive a 10% discount. Participants will be required to bring a bag lunch each day and juice will be provided. Application deadline is May 20.

For more information and applications, contact the Physical Education Center, ext. 2802.
