"This Week" Summer Schedule

This Week will be published every other week during the summer months beginning with this edition. The deadline for information to be submitted will be Wednesday at noon before the publication date on Mondays.

If more information is needed concerning specific deadlines, contact the public relations office.

"The Fantasticks" Auditions To Be Held

Coastal will hold auditions for the summer performance of the musical "The Fantasticks," Monday, May 14, at 7 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium. Auditions are open to the public.

Director of the play is Richard Jennings, head of the MFA acting program and director of theater graduate studies at USC Columbia. Parts are available for sopranos age 18 to 25, and males age 20 to 60. Men are not required to sing. Sopranos should bring a prepared piece to sing. Accompaniment will be provided.

"The Fantasticks" will be presented June 22, 23, 29, and 30, and July 1 in Wheelwright Auditorium.

For more information, contact the Wheelwright Box Office, ext. 2502.

Tuition Assistance Funds Available

Additional tuition assistance funds are available for the Summer I session. For an application or more information, faculty and staff should contact Chris Martin, academic affairs, ext. 2086. The deadline for returning applications for the Summer I session is Friday, June 1.

Student Advertising Club Established At Coastal

Coastal has established a student advertising club, under the direction of Paul Olsen, graphics professor and Ed Cerny, coordinator of the MBA and internship program. There are 24 members in the club.

One of the club's first projects is to assist in creating ads generated by the Personal Selling class at Coastal, for the 1990-91 basketball programs. A percentage of the commission total will be donated to the club for services.

Club officers recently were elected as follows:

President - Susan Parker
Vice President - Stephanie Kern
Secretary - Rich Grogan
Treasurer - Carol Colwell

Coastal students Michael Judin and Kitty Collins Gundling were instrumental in the process of organizing the chapter.

Coastal Students Receive Awards

Several Coastal history students presented papers at the statewide meeting of Phi Alpha Theta (history honorary society) recently held at Coastal. The papers were presented in the American Division and the European Category of the society.

Students who received awards for their presentations were Stacia Baker for her essay on "The Psychological Aspect of the Reign of Ivan IV," and Alan Sparks for his paper entitled, "An Explanation of the 'Trent' Affair Regarding its Position in the American Civil War."

Coastal Students Present Projects At Psychology Conference

Four Coastal psychology major recently presented research projects at the Carolinas Psychology Conference in Raleigh, North Carolina.

Students were required to submit abstracts of research papers for consideration prior to the conference. All students who submitted abstracts were accepted as presenters.

The students and their project topics were: Richard Langston of Conway, "The Effects of Auditory and Visual Presentation on Short Term Memory: Males vs. Females"; Susan Gray of North Myrtle Beach, "Predictive Value of Variables Associated with College Academic Success"; Janet Massingill of Surfside Beach, "Attitudes of Male and Female College Students Toward Acquaintance Rape"; and W. Roy McKaughan of North Myrtle Beach, "HIV/AIDS Information as Affecting Knowledge and Sexual Behavior in College Students."

Dr. Joan Piroch, associate professor of psychology, is faculty advisor to the group of students.

Students Inducted To Pi Mu Epsilon

Ten Coastal students were inducted to Pi Mu Epsilon, a national honorary mathematics fraternity, during a banquet recently held at Coastal. Dr. Joel Brawley, alumni distinguished professor of mathematical sciences at Clemson University was the guest speaker.

The following students were inducted: Gary Allen, Gwendolyn Brinkley, Pamela Culbertson, Ida Fraiser, Aldalla Hadaad, Julian J. Kennedy, Kenneth Madden, Lucille Moses, Eileen Turner and Donnita Thrash.

Staff Enrichment Funds Available

The staff enrichment committee has announced the availability of funds for work-related seminars and workshops to enhance productivity and job effectiveness.

Applications are available upon request for full-time staff and may be obtained from Clara Rogers, academic affairs, ext. 2088.
