

11-5-1990

Coastal Carolina College This Week, November 5, 1990

USC Coastal Carolina College

Coastal Carolina University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.coastal.edu/this-week>

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the History Commons

Recommended Citation

USC Coastal Carolina College and Coastal Carolina University, "Coastal Carolina College This Week, November 5, 1990" (1990). Coastal Carolina College This Week. 460.
<https://digitalcommons.coastal.edu/this-week/460>

This Periodical is brought to you for free and open access by the CCU Newsletters at CCU Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Coastal Carolina College This Week by an authorized administrator of CCU Digital Commons. For more information, please contact commons@coastal.edu.

THIS WEEK

A Weekly Newsletter for Faculty and Staff of Coastal Carolina College Vol. 1 No. 11

November 5, 1990

Campus Calendar

Monday, November 5th

- Conference on Black Africa – Benedict College, Columbia, continues through Nov. 6. Contact: Geoff Parsons.
- Soccer – Big South Conference Tournament, final match, 7 p.m., away.
- Southern Folk Music Concert, with Guy and Candie Carawan – 7 p.m., SC 205. Contact: Charles Joyner.

Tuesday, November 6th

- Election Day – all campus offices closed. No classes scheduled. Kimbel Library and Physical Education Center closed.
- Volleyball – Spartanburg, 7 p.m., home.

Wednesday, November 7th

- Comptroller General Earle Morris Visit – all day. Contact: Academic Affairs.
- Faculty Senate Meeting – 4 to 5 p.m., SCI 106. Contact: Anne Stanley.
- FOCUS Workshop for undeclared students – 4 p.m., SC 205. Contact: Linda Ford.
- The Radon-Nikodyn Property, Part II, mathematics seminar presented by Bob Huff – 7 to 8 p.m., SCI 120. Contact: C. C. Edwards.

Thursday, November 8th

- Public Forum on Wetland Issues – 7 to 8:30 p.m., Myrtle Beach Martinique Hotel. Contact: Paul Gayes.
- Student Leadership Workshop, Part II – 2:15 to 5:30 p.m., SC 205. Contact: Student Affairs.

Friday, November 9th

- Volleyball – Big South Tournament, first round, away.

Saturday, November 10th

- Men's Golf – Francis Marion Tournament, Wellman Country Club, continues through Nov. 11.
- NTE Specialty Testing – TBA, campus. Contact: Admissions Office.
- Men's and Women's Cross Country – NCAA District III Regional, Greenville, SC.
- Volleyball – Big South Tournament, second round, away.

Sunday, November 11th

- Soccer – NCAA Division I Regionals, TBA.

Coastal Theater to present adult comedy

Coastal's Wheelwright Passport Series will present And Miss Reardon Drinks a Little, a comedy by Paul Zindel, Friday, Nov. 16 and Saturday, Nov. 17 at 8 p.m.; and Sunday, Nov. 18 at 3 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium.

Zindel's adult comedy, And Miss Reardon Drinks a Little, was first produced to critical acclaim in New York in 1971. On the surface, the play presents a harmless dinner party between three grown sisters and various neighbors. But appearances can be deceiving: Catherine drinks a little, Ceil hasn't been around in more than eight months, and Anna worries that she has rabies. Not to mention that Bob hasn't used the bathroom in his own house in nine years and his wife steals soap and paper towels from the board of education.

Please see Miss Reardon, page 2.

Wetlands to be topic of public forum

Fall Forum on Wetlands, the final program in the series of environmental forums sponsored by the Center for Marine and Wetland Studies, will be held Thursday, Nov. 8, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at the Myrtle Beach Martinique Hotel, 7100 North Ocean Boulevard.

The Panel will discuss environmental assessment, regulatory policies, and implications for future economic development.

Please see Wetlands, page 2.

This Week is published every Monday by the Public Relations Office. Information to be included should be submitted by noon on the Wednesday before publication.

Continued from page 1.

Miss Reardon

This powerful comedy-with-a-message shows what can happen when people who are supposed to love each other exact retribution in small acts of destruction. And Miss Reardon Drinks a Little is a drawing room comedy with a bleak contemporary twist, full of surprises.

Zindel also wrote the drama The Effect of Gamma Rays on Man-in-the-Moon Marigolds. He is also the author of several novels, including My Darling, My Hamburger, and Pardon Me, You're Stepping on My Eyeball.

The play is directed by Sandi Shackelford, assistant professor of theater.

Tickets for And Miss Reardon Drinks a Little are $7, and $4 for students.

For more information, call Coastal's Wheelwright Box Office, ext. 2502. ∞

Staff asked to report telephone problems

Computer Services continues to receive reports of campus telephone calls being disconnected. Anyone who is having this problem should notify the switchboard. The switchboard operator will need to know your extension, the time you were disconnected, whether the call was incoming or outgoing, and which line you were using - Conway, Myrtle Beach, Georgetown or Columbia. ∞

Math Department sponsors seminar

The mathematics department will sponsor The Radon-Nikodyn Property, Part II, a mathematics seminar presented by Bob Huff, Wednesday, Nov. 7, from 7 to 8 p.m. in SCI 120. The seminar is free and open to the public.

For more information, contact C. C. Edwards, ext. 2167. ∞

Southern folk music concert to be held Nov. 5

A concert of Southern folk music with Guy and Candie Carawan will be held Monday, Nov. 5, from 7 to 9 p.m. in SC 205. The concert is free and open to the public.

For 25 years, Guy Carawan has performed his repertoire of traditional Southern music as well as contemporary songs with a Southern slant. His performing career parallels 25 years of important cultural work in the South, based at the Highlander Center in Tennessee. Carawan has 13 recordings and 15 documentaries dealing with Appalachia and black Southern cultures as well as with the music of China.

As a husband and wife team, Guy and Candie Carawan have studied and performed the folk music of the South Carolina Lowcountry as well as that of the Appalachians. They used to live on Johns Island, near Charleston. The Carawans have performed on educational television and have written a book, Ain't You Got a Right to the Tree of Life? — an oral history of Johns Island life.

For more information, call Charles Joyner, ext. 2891. ∞

New Faculty Orientation sessions continue

The new faculty orientation series, designed to acquaint new faculty with college services, policies, and procedures, continues Tuesday, Nov. 13, from 3:30 to 5 p.m. in the Kearns Hall Education Conference Room. All faculty are invited to attend.

The topic is promotion and tenure, and the program will be conducted by the chair and/or members of the promotion and tenure committee.

The final session of the series will be Tuesday, Dec. 4. For more information, contact Academic Affairs. ∞

Paintings by local artist on exhibit

The art department is hosting an exhibit by Myrtle Beach artist Dot Lesnik through Nov. 28 in the Gallery of the Graduate and Continuing Education Building. The gallery is open from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

The show, titled Landscapes, features Lesnik's acrylic and pastel paintings. Her landscapes are part of a series of works inspired during her trips to France and India. ∞

Continued from page 1.

Wetlands

Moderator Chris March will lead a panel of experts which includes: Charles Crosby of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Otis Allen Jeffcoat III of Jeffcoat and Martin, Elizabeth Wenner of the S.C. Department of Wildlife and Marine Resources, Carl Hershner of the College of William And Mary, and Jeff Thompson of the S.C. Coastal Council.

The forum is free and open to the public. It is sponsored, in part, by the Myrtle Beach Hotel Motel Association, the Myrtle Beach Martinique Hotel, the Oceanview Memorial Foundation, and the Sun News. ∞

Early registration for grad courses begins Nov. 5

Graduate students may schedule appointments for advisement Monday, Nov. 5 through Thursday, Nov. 9. Appointments for advisement will be from 3 to 5 p.m. in the Graduate and Continuing Education Center. Graduate students may register in the registrar's office during the week from 3 to 5 p.m.

Late graduate registration will be in January; however, students can avoid long lines by registering this week. Tuition invoices will be mailed to students in mid-December. ∞

Coastal, SCORE to sponsor workshop for small businesses

The Small Business Development Center at Coastal and the Service Corps of Retired Executives (SCORE) are co-sponsoring a hands-on financial workshop designed for small business owners and future entrepreneurs.

Financial Management for Small Businesses will be held Tuesday, Nov. 27 and Wednesday, Nov. 28 from 6 to 9 p.m. in the Continuing Education Center of Horry-Georgetown Technical College, room 801.

For more information, call Patrick King in Coastal's Small Business Development Center, ext. 2169. ∞

Talented entertainers needed

The alcohol and drug prevention program is sponsoring Casino Night, Friday, Nov. 30. Talented faculty and staff who would be willing to entertain during the event should contact Vicki Gardner, ext. 2340. ∞

Birthdays This Week

November

- | | |
|----|--|
| 5 | Cenita Gerald
Al Hall
Sandra Shackelford |
| 7 | Janice Sellers |
| 8 | Francis Butler
Reubin Fullwood |
| 9 | Patty Sue Sanders |
| 10 | James Johnson
Christine Martin |

Coastal Carolina College is an affirmative action, equal opportunity institution.

Powell in Geneva competition

Philip Powell recently competed in the 46th Geneva International Competition for Musical Performers.

The two-week competition, held in September, featured 150 violinists, pianists, clarinetists, and double-bassists of all nationalities. Powell entered the pianist competition.

Competitors were graded by a jury on an admission application, a recital, and a final with an orchestra.

Music students at Coastal will benefit from Powell's experiences as he plans to instruct students in the art of music competition.

Powell's trip to Switzerland was funded by Coastal, the Horry County Higher Education Commission, and a grant from the Horry County Cultural Arts Commission. ∞

Intramural update

The goal of intramural recreation is to contribute to the total recreation education of our students, and to meet the recreational needs of every individual in the college community through participation in a wide variety of athletic activities. Faculty, staff, and students are encouraged to participate in these activities.

Upcoming events include:

- Free aerobics
Mon., Wed. and Fri. - 2:30- 3:30 p.m.
Tue. & Thu. - 6 - 7 p.m. Classes are held in the P. E. Center dance studio.
- Team Triathlon
Legs of the race include one-quarter mile swim, five-mile bike, and a two-mile run. Teams can consist of an individual or three members. Entries open Nov. 2 and close Nov. 12. Captains meet Nov. 13, and the event is Nov. 15.
- Three-on-three super hoops
Men's and women's leagues with half-court basketball games. Winners receive free gifts from Schick. Entries are open through Nov. 12. Captains meet Nov. 13, and play begins Nov. 14.

For more information, contact the intramural sports department in WB 105, or call ext. 2830. ∞

Psychology faculty and students attend workshop

Coastal's psychology professors Tony Albiniak, Wade Baird, Thomas Boyd, Joan Piroch, and Paul Stanton and 40 psychology major students recently attended Academic Day at Columbia College. The event was sponsored by the South Carolina Psychological Association.

Workshops and round table discussions for faculty provided information on computer use in the classroom and teaching various courses in psychology. Baird and Hills conducted separate workshops on teaching specific psychology courses.

Workshops for students provided information about graduate school, careers in psychology, and licensure in South Carolina. ∞

Coastal Carolina People

C. C. Edwards, Subhash Saxena, Prashant Sangiriy, Steve West, and Linda Vereen participated in the fall conference of the Mathematics Advancement Council of Horry-Georgetown counties, held at Horry-Georgetown Technical College.

Karen D. Carpenter has been listed in Sigma Theta Tau International's Directory of Nurse Researchers. Sigma Theta Tau is the International Honor Society of Nursing. The organization supports nursing research as a major precept of improving the nursing profession.

Denvy A. Bowman's article, The Formula Sociorum in the Second and First Centuries, B.C., will appear in the 1989-90 Classical Journal. The journal is an internationally recognized publication concerned with the history of classical antiquity.

Jacqueline L. Gmuca's article, Images of the South in Children's Literature, was published in The Whole Language Catalog, edited by Kenneth Goodman, Lois Bridges Bird, and Yetta Goodman. ∞