Coastal family loses friend and co-worker

The Coastal family is deeply saddened to learn of the death of Beverly Harris of the Bursar's (Treasurer's) Office who passed away Thursday morning. Beverly had been with Coastal for seven years.

Arrangements are with McKiever's Funeral Home in Conway. Services will be 3 p.m. Sunday at Cherry Hill Baptist Church. Friends may call on the family at the home of Beverly's mother, Mrs. Mary Davis, 1806 Highway 378, Conway.

Many members of the Coastal family had wanted to assist Beverly with her medical expenses. Her lengthy illness prevented her from working and depleted her sick leave and annual leave. She also had medical expenses which exceeded the payments made by the insurance claims. Beverly lived in Conway with her elderly mother and was the sole source of support for the household.

In response to requests from members of the Coastal family who wanted to help defray the high costs of Beverly's treatments and medication, contributions will still be accepted.

If you wish to make a contribution, Lindy Smith in the Office of Institutional Research, EMS-112, is responsible for the collection of funds. Any amount whether large or small, will be greatly appreciated by the family. ∞

Cheerleader heads to Middle East

Like thousands of other military men and women, Coastal student John Mann has been called to active duty.

The marine science major reported to duty Friday, Nov. 30 and then left for Fort Stewart near Savannah, Ga. for 21 days of training to be followed by five weeks of desert training in California. Mann is a member of the HHC 1st Battalion 263rd Armor of Mullins.

Prior to joining the National Guard in September, Mann was in the U.S. Army. In January 1988, Mann began a 22-month stint in Panama. He joined the Army Airborne Infantry in 1987, stationed in Fort Benning, Ga.

Mann is from Rochester, N.Y. At Coastal, he is a varsity cheerleader, a member of the Spirit Club and a Kappa Tau Omega pledge.

The cheerleading squad and coach Kim Grant honored Mann with a plaque during halftime of the Thursday, Nov. 29 basketball game. According to Grant, the cheerleaders will wear yellow ribbons through the basketball season as long as servicemen, like Mann, are on active duty.

Linda Carmichael, supervisor of records in the Office of the Registrar, said approximately five Coastal students have withdrawn from classes this month due to the Persian Gulf situation. ∞

Coastal Carolina People

C. C. Edwards participated in the third annual International Conference on Technology in Collegiate Mathematics held at Ohio State University in November.

Jacqueline L. Gmuca, Randall A. Wells and Glenda Y. Sweet co-authored an article published in Education, Vol. 111, Number 1 (fall 1990). The article is titled "The Groves Method of Teaching Writing by Lecture-Tutorial: An Ovation and a Modification."

Paul T. Gayes attended the International Symposium on "Quaternary Shorelines: Evolution, Processes and Future Change" held in La Plata, Argentina. He presented a paper entitled "A new look at late Holocene sea level along the South Carolina coast, U.S.A." detailing some of his ongoing research. He also spoke on "Storm generated deposits and post-storm recovery; Hurricane Hugo in S.C." Gayes is a participating member of the U.S. Working Group to the International Geologic Correlation Programme—Project 274 which held it's annual meeting in La Plata. Following the conference, he participated in a field excursion to study coastal landforms of Tierra del Fuego from the Straits of Magellan to the Beagal Channel. He will give a slide presentation of the excursion in the spring semester. ∞
