The Acting Company to present Romeo and Juliet

The Wheelwright Council for the Arts will present William Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet, Monday, Jan. 28 at 8 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium as part of the Wheelwright Passport series.

Presented by The Acting Company, the nation's only permanently touring professional repertory ensemble, Romeo and Juliet is directed by Leon Rubin. He has set The Acting Company's Romeo and Juliet in the Romantic period and has developed the humorous elements of Shakespeare's text to balance its tragic aspects.

Since 1980, The Acting Company has been the touring arm of the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. The company was founded in 1972.

Romeo and Juliet is made possible, in part, by a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts through the Southern Arts Federation, of which Coastal is a member. The performance is also funded, in part, by the Horry Cultural Arts Council and the South Carolina Arts Commission.

Tickets are $20 ($10 for students) and are available in the Wheelwright Box Office. ~

P.E. Center to hold open house

The Physical Education Center is holding an Open House Saturday, Jan. 26 from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., in conjunction with Homecoming activities.

Included in the day's events will be demonstrations of karate, aerobics, water aerobics for adults age 50 and older, racquetball, and an exhibition featuring an area junior swim team. There will also be clowns, door prizes and more.

For more information on the P.E. Center Open House, contact Diane Watson. ~

Coastal Carolina People

Paul Rice has published "An Interview: Richard Hugo" in the most recent Cutbank: The University of Montana Review. Hugo, now deceased, was the founder of the famous Montana writing program and the author of 13 books of poetry. Hugo visited Rice in Asheville in 1980 where the interview was taped. The talk with Hugo is published as part of Cutbank's memorial for the tenth anniversary of his death. ~

Homecoming activities set for Jan. 25-26

Homecoming activities begin Friday, Jan. 25 at 7:30 p.m. as former Lady Chants tip-off in the Second Annual Women's Alumni Basketball Game in Kimbel Gymnasium. The women will be followed by former Chanticleers participating in the tenth Annual Men's Alumni Basketball Game, beginning at 8:30 p.m. Both games are free.

A pep rally and bonfire will follow the alumni games on the soccer field. Winners from the campus-wide mascot effigy contest will be announced during the pep rally.

A pre-game barbecue will be held Saturday, Jan. 26 from 2 to 4:30 p.m. in the Graduate and Continuing Education Center. Adult tickets are $5 and children under 10 are admitted free.

The Homecoming game begins Saturday, Jan. 26 at 5 p.m. in Kimbel Gymnasium when the Chanticleers take on Radford University. The Homecoming King and Queen will be crowned at halftime. Admission is $3 for alumni, $5 for adults and $2 for children.

Festivities move to the Sea Mist Resort in Myrtle Beach after the basketball game. The Alumni Association will host a drop-in for alumni, faculty and staff from 8 p.m. to midnight in the Palmetto Room. The Homecoming Dance, sponsored by Campus Union, will be held in the Exhibit Hall from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. Coastal alumni, faculty, staff and students are invited to attend the Homecoming Dance.

For more information about Homecoming, contact Pat Snell. ~
