Coastal to honor black educators

As part of the fourth annual Black History Month and Martin Luther King Jr. Birthday Celebration, Coastal will present Salute to Education on Wednesday, Feb. 20 at 7 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium.

The event is free and open to the public.

Walter Tobin, superintendent of Lexington School District 4, is the keynote speaker. Special presentations will be given to five area educators during the program. A reception follows the ceremony.

The Black History Month and Martin Luther King Jr. Birthday Celebration is sponsored by Coastal's Association of Afro-American Students.

For more information, contact George Williams or Kathy Watts. ~

A Message from the Chancellor

Our recent self-study visit would not have been the complete success that it was without the participation of all faculty and staff. Your hard work prior to and your hospitality during the visit brought nothing but praise from all visiting committee members.

Thank you for a job well done.

Chancellor Eaglin

Founders Day plans announced

Founders Day is Monday, Feb. 25 at 4 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium. All faculty and staff should plan to participate in the convocation.

Faculty will assemble in the Student Center with their robes and hoods at 3:45 p.m., and then proceed to Wheelwright Auditorium for the processional. (In case of inclement weather, faculty will gather in the mezzanine of Wheelwright.)

Those who need academic robes and hoods should place orders with the bookstore immediately.

Faculty are asked to encourage students to attend this important event. ~

This Week is published every Monday by the Public Relations Office. Information to be included should be submitted by noon the Wednesday before publication.

Coastal Carolina College is an affirmative action, equal opportunity institution.

European advertising is topic of lecture

Ed Cerny will present a slide and video presentation on advertising and culture in Central and Eastern Europe Wednesday, Feb. 20 at 3:30 p.m. in KH-201. The presentation is free and open to the public.

Cerny spent two weeks in October 1990 participating in an Eastern European Advertising Exchange Program which took him to Germany, Hungary, and Czechoslovakia. In addition to trips to various advertising agencies throughout the region, Cerny visited Budapest University and Prague's Charles University, which was founded in 1346. ~

Film Series features World War II film

The Wheelwright Passport Series will present the film, Cranes Are Flying, on Sunday, Feb. 17 at 3 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium.

Set in the Soviet Union during World War II, director Mikhail Kalatozov focuses on the people in Moscow coping the best way they can in the turmoil that surrounds them.

The film won the Palm d'Or at Cannes in the 1960s.

Tickets are $2, or $1 with a Coastal ID, and are available at the Wheelwright Box Office. ~
