Will Turner called the meeting to order.

Robert Templeton moved to approve the committee minutes of October 10, 2013. Turner seconded, and the motion passed.

Stacie Bowie delivered an update on the internal audits. All recommendations from Cline, Brandt & Kochenower on last year's audit have been successfully addressed. As a result, some forms on campus will be standardized.

Work continues on campus for audits in areas selected this year. One audit was delayed due to staff illness. Another is completed, but the report is not available yet.

Every three years Columbia performs a materials management audit. Although we didn't agree with a couple of things, we talked through it. Another item allowed purchases with p-cards from vendors quoted with a code that we don't allow, however, we can override it. (The purchasing manual noted this.) All issues have been approved by the Budget and Control Board, and they have agreed to a Procurement Certification. Having clean audits allows us to have more purchasing responsibility.

Cline, Brandt & Kochenower conducts the NCAA recurring audit for the president. We had a typo of a number which has been corrected. Otherwise, the audit was good and has been approved.

Coastal Carolina has been chosen by the IRS for a payroll audit.

As there was no further business, Carlos Johnson moved to adjourn and Chuck Lewis seconded.

Respectfully submitted,
