Because the budget has not been approved, Chief Financial Officer/Vice President David Frost was asked to review the working proposed budget as a preview but not include it in the minutes as it will most likely change.

There will be a Finance, Planning, and Facilities Committee meeting after the budget is approved in Columbia, no later than June 15. The Board will receive the proposed budget at least 72 hours before the meeting in order to have time to review it. If possible, Chairman Biggs asked all trustees to come to campus for the meeting.

Henderson would like to see a report on the $1.157M strategic initiatives to ascertain if they are profitable and an analysis of the renovation reserve account before the budget is approved. He feels that the University should cap the renovation reserve account for a certain number of years.

Mullen cautioned that we not outprice ourselves with out-of-state students. It was noted that Associate Provost for Admissions & Merit Awards Amanda Craddock carefully watches out-of-state pricing.
