Chief Financial Officer/Senior Vice President David Frost presented the following financial update on the 2020-2021 Revenue for 10 Fund only:

Coastal has refunded students $8.8 million dollars due to COVID-19 costs. This was to cover housing, food and parking expenses that were previously paid to the university. Coastal has received $5 million dollars from the CARES Act, and this is in the process of being distributed to the students as well. An additional $5 million dollars has been received from the CARES Act and is being utilized for updating the university's online measures, as well as COVID relief for costs that the university has incurred. As of now, the current 2020 budget is balanced at this time. This is due to the cuts made before COVID hit and the recently received federal funds.

Looking forward, there are two educational-setting scenarios that Coastal is looking at for the 2021 projected budget. One is having students return for face-to-face learning, and the other is having the students remain online for the fall semester. If the students return in-person for fall, with a projected 15% decrease in students, the university is looking at reducing expenses.
