

Summary index of Parker interview

Minutes	Topic(s)
01:00- 02:16	bio on Clark Parker
02:33 – 07:43	why he enrolled at CCU and his student life, academics and campus activities, including athletics
07:44 – 08:52	CINO club (Booster Club) and CINO Day and CINO Grill
08:56 - 11:25	Parker’s plans after graduation, his career as CPA and CCU involvement in the business major and athletics
11:26 – 20:28	Move to CCU’s independence from USC and his involvement and perspective
21:25 – 22:44	Coastal’s move from two-year to three, then four year degrees and FTE counts
22:45 – 26:37	His supervision of 24 student athletes and other duties in athletics in Kimbel Gym and ball fields
26:38 – 30:20	Formation of first CCU Board of Trustees and its early accomplishments
30:29 – 33:00	USC Pres. Palms’ visit to and involvement in Coastal’s independence; Parker’s interactions with USC and hurdles to CCU independence
34:48 – 40:01	Research (Fretwell report consultants) and transition to independence; the work of Horry County Higher Education Commission members (HCHEC); SGA’s and others’ votes
40:08 – 41:25	Graduation diploma options, USC vs CCU
41:40 – 42:50	final reflection on independence movement
43:01 – 45:00	CCU Board of Trustees early issues – Football
45:35 – 47:55	External people who helped CCU gain independence and photo of HCHEC members
48:05 – 50:25	Biggest change at CCU – enrollment and paced growth
50:35 – 53:50	Challenges – distance learning, state dollars, fiscal efficiency; global competition while serving locally and benefits of region
54:40 – 58:00	Significant changes that affected parker – scholarships, timing and growth
58:18 – 1:01:20	Final thoughts – family atmosphere at CCU, are for students, quality of faculty and progress of athletics; his SC Commission on Higher Education appointment