

Interview with Anne Monk, February 18, 2016 - SUMMARY INDEX

| Time (Mins) | Topics / Descriptions |
|--------------------|--|
| 0:00 - 1:17 | Introduction and welcome - Monk biography |
| 1:40 - 4:00 | Monk's student life at Coastal with advisor Tom Trout; her work as reporter, then editor, at Loris Sentinel; description of working typeset |
| 4:01 - 5:02 | Monk's broadcasting work with Associate Press (AP) in Columbia, SC |
| 5:05 - 7:30 | Monk's return to Coastal; her impressions of residence halls on campus |
| 7:31 - 13:00 | Mon's work as Director of public relations and working with news releases; campus telephone extensions - two-person office and academic news like Fulbrights, new academic programs, basketball successes; guest speakers to campus such as Gloria Steinem and Archbishop Desmond Tutu |
| 13:05 - 14:50 | Technology in the news business; CCU's first website (1996?) |
| 15:00 - 16:30 | Dealing with emergencies at off hours and responsible reporting; sensitive issues (NCAA) and transparency |
| 16:35 - 19:37 | Relationship with local news outlets (paper, TV) and individual donors like the Edwards |
| 19:42 - 23:30 | Opening of Edwards Humanities and Fine Arts building with butterfly release and other building dedications (Wall and Prince and Brooks Stadium) |
| 23:31 - 24:30 | Biggest change at Coastal = its size and enrollment increase |
| 24:31 - 26:05 | Challenges for Coastal going forward = to retain the closeness of the campus community ; successes of our students |
| 26:06 - 28:32 | Most significant event = independence vote by the Horry County Higher Education Commission and the Coastal Educational Foundation in Atheneum Hall; Gov. Carroll Campbell's signing legislation on campus; event's plans at Singleton Bldg; banner and buttons |

- 28:40 - 32:00 Beginning to create CCU traditions, like the seal (Oran Smith's design), the antheneum logo, the alma mater (Sinclair), the mace and its design and creation by Winthrop artist, Ward
- 32:30 - 34:00 The Antheneum structure (placement and replicas on campus); campus master plan for land use
- 34:10 - 35:00 Portables (trailers) on campus to accommodate growth
- 35:13 - 36:20 Faculty House near pond and its activities
- 36:30 - 40:44 Nurturing the spirit of Coastal; Football's influence and baseball's winnings show "can do" spirit typical of Coastal.